

A close-up photograph of a young man and woman about to kiss. The woman, on the left, has long brown hair with bangs and is wearing a light grey long-sleeved shirt. The man, on the right, has dark hair and is wearing a blue shirt under a red and white plaid shirt. They are both smiling and looking down at each other. The background is a soft-focus outdoor scene with greenery.

for their mother and she'll be accompanied by the prying podcast host and her watchful handsome producer Adam Hawkins. Unwilling to let the sister she's spent so much of her life protecting go it alone, Jess reluctantly joins them. Together the four make their way across the country unraveling the mystery of where the couple disappeared to and why. But soon Jess is discovering other things too. Like a renewed sense of vulnerability and curiosity and a willingness to expand beyond the walls she's so carefully built. And in Adam she finds an unexpected connection she didn't even know was missing if only she can let go and let him in.

Singing God's Words Jeffrey A. Summit, 2016 The first in depth study of chanting Torah among contemporary Jews in the United States. Singing God's Words presents a reconceptualization of spiritual experience. Jeffrey A. Summit details the transforming effect that digital technology, feminism and a pursuit of self fulfillment in the community has had on congregants and clergy as they teach, learn and understand what it means to stand at the epicenter of Jewish worship and read Torah.

Girl at the End of the World Elizabeth Esther, 2014-03-18 I was raised in a homegrown fundamentalist Christian group which is just a shorthand way of saying I'm classically trained in apocalyptic stockpiling, street preaching and the King James Version of the Bible. I know hundreds of obscure nineteenth century hymns by heart and have such razor sharp modesty vision that I can spot a miniskirt a mile away. Verily, verily I say unto thee, none of these highly specialized skills ever got me a job, but at least I'm all set for the end of the world. Selah. A story of mind control, the Apocalypse and modest attire. Elizabeth Esther grew up in love with Jesus but in fear of daily spankings to break her will. Trained in her family run church to confess sins real and imagined, she knew her parents loved her and God probably hated her. Not until she was grown and married did she find the courage to attempt the unthinkable. To leave. In her memoir, readers will recognize questions every believer faces: When is spiritual zeal a gift and when is it a trap? What happens when a pastor holds unchecked sway over his followers? And how can we leave behind the harm inflicted in the name of God without losing God in the process? By turns hilarious and heartbreaking, Girl at the End of the World is a story of the lingering effects of spiritual abuse and the growing hope that God can still be good when His people fail. Includes reading group discussion guide and interview with the author.

Falling for you slowly Kate Bridges, 2025-06-15 She escaped a monster only to fall into the arms of a more dangerous one. After the brutal murder of her family at the hands of her abusive fiancé, 24 year old Rosalina runs for her life straight into the shadows of New York City. With nowhere else to go, she ends up under the protection of her estranged childhood best friend Alec Salvatore. But Alec isn't the boy she once knew. He's a cold, calculated Mafia boss, feared and respected in equal measure. Cruel, possessive, utterly ruthless. And the second Rosalina enters his world, his iron control begins to crack. What starts as a twisted deal, no strings, no feelings, just pleasure, quickly spirals into something neither of them can control. Alec wants her. All of her. And Rosalina. She's starting to wonder if she's traded one prison for another, only this one feels dangerously good. As secrets unravel and pasts collide, desire becomes a deadly game. And in Alec's world, love isn't just a risk, it's a weakness that could get them both killed. 18. WARNING: This book contains explicit sexual content.
