

How did the Enclosure Acts have a social impact on people in Great Britain?

Document 4 is a population chart in several towns from 1685 to 1881, from Alfred Toynbee's "Lectures on the Industrial Revolution in England, 1884."

Growth of Population by City

Year	1685	1769	1881
Liverpool	4,000	43,000	552,425
Manchester	4,000	43,000	393,676
Birmingham	4,000	28,000	400,757
Sheffield	4,000	30,000	284,210

Write down one reason, based on the chart above why the Industrial Revolution began in British cities.

Document 5 is from Adam Smith's 1776 work, The Wealth of Nations, where he compares Britain's economic standing with other European nations, notably Portugal and Spain. By 1776, Portugal and Spain has comparably weaker economic standing in Europe.

A country that has no mines of its own must undoubtedly draw its gold and silver from foreign countries, in the same manner as one that has no vineyards of its own must draw its vines. It does not seem necessary, however, that the attention of government should be more turned toward the one than toward the other object. A country that has wherewithal to buy wine which it has occasion for; and a country that has wherewithal to buy gold and silver, will never be in want of those materials. They are to be bought for a certain price like all other commodities, so all other commodities are the price of those metals. We trust with perfect security that the freedom of trade, without any attention from government, will always supply us with the wine which we have occasion for; and we may trust with equal security that it will always supply us with all the gold and silver which we can afford to purchase or to employ, either in circulating our commodities, or in other uses.

How did Adam Smith view the role of government in matters of trade?
