Le Maroc En Transition:

Postwar Jewish Displacement and Rebirth Françoise S. Ouzan, Manfred Gerstenfeld, 2014-06-26 This volume offers insights into the major Jewish migration movements and rebuilding of European Jewish communities in the mid twentieth century Its chapters illustrate many facets of the Jews often traumatic post war experiences People had to find their way when returning to their countries of origin or starting from scratch in a new land Their experiences and hardships from country to country and from one community of migrants to another are analyzed here The mass exodus of Jews from Arab and Muslim countries is also addressed to provide a necessary and broader insight into how those challenges were met as both migrations were a result of persecution as well as discrimination

Guide to Islamist Movements Barry M. Rubin, Political and Constitutional Transitions in North Africa Justin Frosini, Francesco Biagi, 2014-12-05 The transformations which are taking place in the Arab world are dynamic processes characterised by a number of variables that one can refer to as actors and factors The implications of the Arab uprisings are important for the world at large the Arab world s successes and failures at this crucial moment may well serve as a model for other nations Political and Constitutional Transitions in North Africa focuses on five Northern African countries Tunisia Egypt Morocco Libya and Algeria examining specific institutions and actors participating in the political upheavals in North Africa since 2011 and placing them in a comparative perspective in order to better understand the processes at work This book addresses issues pertinent to North African and Middle Eastern Studies comparative constitutional law political science and transitional studies and it contains contributions by experts in all these fields Providing a significant contribution to the understanding of events that followed the immolation of Mohamed Bouazizi in Tunisia this book is a valuable contribution to North African Studies Middle Eastern Studies Comparative Constitutional Law and Transitional Studies

Nostalgic Rebels: Politics, Aesthetics, and Selfhood in Postcolonial Morocco Khalid Lyamlahy, 2025-05-23 Mohammed Kha r Eddine 1941 1995 Abdelk bir Khatibi 1938 2009 and Abdellatif La bi 1942 are three of the most important francophone Moroccan writers to have emerged in the 1960s Belonging to the Souffles generation named after the journal of culture and politics founded in 1966 they played a major role in cultural decolonization and the development of Moroccan literature This book examines their works and legacy through the dual lenses of revolt and nostalgia By weaving together comparative close readings of their writings with an analysis of the broader historical and political context in Morocco the book demonstrates that these writers have used revolt and nostalgia to address state sponsored violence grapple with uncertainties about the writing process and advance or revitalize their political and aesthetic projects In doing so this study traces a literary genealogy of political resistance aesthetic subversion and nostalgic reconstruction in postcolonial Morocco while offering a nuanced historical perspective that is closely attuned to the specificities of Moroccan postcoloniality and sensitive to individual trajectories and experiences The book covers a wide range of literary genres including poetry theater prose fiction and autobiography all analyzed through a distinctively
