Making Good Creation Creativity And Artistry:

Making Good Trevor Hart, 2023-05 God spoke and all that is and all that ever will be came into existence God alone can be called uncreated and Creator and creation can only accomplish that which already exists within God's imagination In Making Good Trevor Hart argues that human creativity is always a matter of unfolding the possibilities already latent within the original creative event Making Good contends that while humans must acknowledge the unique and incomparable dimensions of God's creative activity the biblical theology of creation encourages rather than prohibits human creativity within a language of creation Hart's basic contention is that the God known as the Father of Jesus Christ is no domineering deity who jealously seeks to protect his creative prerogatives but one whose own creativity calls forth inspires and enables creative responses on the part of his human creatures Making Good blends biblical historical and systematic theology into conversation with philosophy aesthetics and developments in creative theory among the social sciences Hart renders a theological account of human artistry and the wider human activities of making good

Encountering theology for the first time is exciting but it can also be daunting Some struggle to connect with doctrinal discussion they perceive to be abstract or abstruse Others may find the scope of theology and the connections between different theological issues dizzying In order to address these difficulties and keep the initial excitement alive A New Introduction to Theology offers a range of accessible practical experiential and interactive encounters with the major elements of academic Christian theology The guiding motif of this book is the claim that theology is full bodied thought The phrase full bodied shows both the richness of the experience of theology and its nature as a thoroughly embodied encounter with ways of knowing God and God's ways with the world This motif allows the authors to bring together topics ranging from theology through the arts sexuality and the body and the nature of the church's everyday life to mystical theology spirituality political action and ecology Working imaginatively with the five senses and the notions of loving and resting each chapter provides a range of activities guided discussions and reflections on key theological texts authors and issues This is a unique introduction to the key innovative and interdisciplinary elements from contemporary theology ideal for individual reflection classroom work or flexible and distributed learning T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation ,2024-03-07 The T to divine creativity The Craft of Church Planting Christian Selvaratnam, 2022-06-30 Drawing on insights from the training practices of the English medieval craft guilds a global survey of 500 church planters interviews with artists and church planting trainers and the authors 30 years of ministry experience The Craft of Church Planting offers a distinctive and imaginative perspective on the methods used to train future practitioners in the art of church planting Demonstrating how training for the next generation of church planting leaders might be informed by the historic master apprentice model guild learning communities creativity and an artisan approach to ministry this book is a vital resource to inform the methods of training for the next generation of church planters Confessing and Believing Trevor Hart, 2022-08-02 In Confessing and Believing Trevor Hart takes readers on a guided tour of the Apostles Creed one of the most ancient universally recognized and important statements of faith ever penned by the Christian Church The Creeds lasting value is not owed simply to its age it has identifiable roots in the earliest baptismal ceremonies of the earliest Christians but because as Hart s careful interpretation demonstrates the Creed is as comprehensive in its scope as it is concise in its testimony While the Creeds intrinsic values make it ideal for regular use in worship Hart capitalizes on the Creed s structure and highly concentrated nature to provide a framework for teaching the essentials of Christian belief Hart reveals that there is far more to the Creed than ancient statements about God Jesus the Holy Spirit or the Church Hart employs the Creeds twelve clauses to reveal the vibrant theology behind in and in front of the Creed His interpretation of the Creed is not just an historical exercise i e to discover what Christians once believed but to understand what has been believed everywhere always and by all and to do so in a way that addresses the intellectual and cultural contexts of the 21st Century Hart s perceptive analysis reveals why the Creed has been is and will continue to be both confessed and believed T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality

Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J. Navarro, 2023-01-26 Liturgical theology tends towards the anthropocentric focussing primarily on the behaviour of the worshippers The theology of Thomas F and James B Torrance however provides an alternative approach a Trinitarian and Christocentric study of liturgy which decentralises the worshippers position in liturgy and focusses instead on Christ the One who is worshipped In Trinitarian Doxology Kevin J Navarro examines the Torrances theology explicating and illuminating their work whilst simultaneously providing critical analysis which provides a lens for deeper understanding

Theology and the Future Trevor Cairney, David Starling, 2014-07-31 Theology was once queen of the sciences the integrating centre of Christendom s conceptual universe In our own time the very idea of systematic theology is frequently called into question derided as an arcane and superstitious pseudo discipline Even within the church it is commonly disregarded in favour of unreflective piety and pragmatism At the same time the southward shift in world Christianity s centre of gravity prompts crucial questions about the future form and content of theology Within this context Theology and the Future offers a case for the continuing viability of theology exploring how it might adapt to changing circumstances and discussing its implications for how we are to imagine and help shape our shared human future Beginning with the question of God this book explores what might be meant by the future of God and what its implications are for Christian theology Chapters follow on the location of theology in global Christianity the church and the academy and on its sources and method The second half of the book explores a wide variety of dimensions of the human future that theology might address and illuminate The essays bring together a mix of specialist theologians and interdisciplinary thinkers to support the assertion that there can be no more critical endeavor to the future than understanding God and all things in relationship to him

Divine Christology in the Epistle to the Hebrews Nick Brennan, 2021-09-23 Nick Brennan investigates the depiction of the Son s divine nature in the Epistle to the Hebrews despite little attention being directly given to the Son s divinity in recent study of Hebrews Brennan argues that not only is the Son depicted as divine in the Epistle but that this depiction ranges outside the early chapters in which it is most often noted and is theologically relevant to the pattern of the Author s argument Beginning with a survey of the state of contemporary scholarship on the Son s divinity in Hebrews and a discussion of the issues connected to predicating divinity of the Son in the Epistle Brennan analyses the application of Old Testament texts to the Son which in their original context refer to God 1 6 10 12 and demonstrates how the Pastor not only affirms the Son s divinity but also the significance of his exaltation as God He then discusses how Heb 3 3 4 witnesses to the divinity of the Son in Hebrews explores debates on the relation of the Son s indestructible life Heb 7 16 to his divinity and demonstrates how two key concepts in Hebrews covenant and sonship reinforce the Son s divinity Brennan thus concludes that the Epistle not only portrays the Son as God but does so in a manner which is a pervasive aspect of its thought and is theologically salient to many features of the Epistle s argument

Ritual and Drama Francis Edwards, 2024-09-26 In Ritual and Drama The Mediaeval Theatre Francis Edwards reveals that ritual forms the basis of all popular theatrical entertainment the root from which dramatic art has grown Covering the period from the tenth to the fifteenth centuries Edwards focusses on the audience impact rather than the artistic qualities of the mediaeval plays devoting much of his attention to the emotional effect of religious and dramatic ritual on the spectator Illuminating the
