

Chapter 4

Accumulating and Assigning Costs to Products

QUESTIONS

- 4-1 The cost of the raw materials entered into production is moved from the raw materials account to the work-in-process inventory account. The cost of manufacturing labor and overhead costs are assigned to production by adding them to the work-in-process inventory account. Overhead costs are assigned (or allocated or apportioned, as described by the cost system, before manufacturing is completed, work is transferred to finished goods inventory, and costs are moved from the work-in-process inventory account to the finished goods inventory account. Finally, when goods are sold, these costs are moved from the finished goods inventory account to cost of goods sold.
- 4-2 Manufacturing organizations face greater challenges in product costing, especially the assignment of overhead costs, than would an service organization do. The latter often looked at manufacturing costing systems in an attempt to learn the costs that products accumulated as they processed organizational resources during manufacturing, as described above in 4-1. In small organizations, growth via purchased value adds manufacturing the cost of the goods purchased is added over an account that accumulates the cost of manufacturing inventory in the costs. Items that various overhead costs such as labor, depreciation on the costs, lighting, and heating. The primary focus is on the assignment to the production of purchased items or depreciation. Therefore, small organizations like manufacturing organizations, face the issue of how to allocate various overhead costs to themselves, for example, the cost of purchasing and selling products, or depreciation costs.

Service organizations that undertake major projects, such as in a consultancy, focus on determining the cost of a project. In such instances, the major direct cost, negligible part, is when a large proportion of the project's cost. The organization will also assign various overhead costs to determine project profitability.

Management Accounting, 6e Will Seal, Carsten Rohde, Ray Garrison, Eric Noreen, 2018-10-30 Management Accounting 6e Professor Carsten Berkau, 2020-04-20 Management Accounting is written for students in international Business Management study programs. It covers the widely applied syllabus of Cost Accounting and Management Accounting at universities on bachelor's and master's level. The book is based on more than 20 years academic teaching experience in Germany and at international universities in South Africa, Malaysia, China, the Netherlands, and South Korea. In this text book, the application of methods and instruments comes first. Management Accounting follows a case study based approach. All cases are taken from previous exam papers and explained in detail. The text book starts with a case study of a manufacturing company and compares Financial Accounting to Management Accounting. It covers two points of view: 1. a General Management view with aspects of business planning, cost-volume-profit analysis, degree of operating leverage, mergers and cross border acquisitions, and risk valuation; 2. a Cost Accounting view with Management Accounting systems, flexible budgeting, cost allocations, performance measurement and monitoring, reporting, calculation, manufacturing accounting, job order and process costing, activity based costing, and multi-level contribution margin Accounting. On the UVK website, numerous exam tasks and complete solutions thereto are available in English.

Problems & Solutions in Advanced Accountancy Volume I, 6th Edition Maheshwari S.N. & Maheshwari S.K., 2009-11-01. Any book on solved problems would be welcome by the students as they dread the unsolved problems. The most problems and solutions in Advanced Accountancy Vol I and II is the result of realization of the same fact. However, this book will serve its purpose the best if before referring to it, the students have attempted to solve the questions on their own. The book has been designed specially to serve as a complementary set to the textbook Advanced Accountancy Vol I and II, authored by the same team as Dr. S. N. Maheshwari and Dr. S. K. Maheshwari. It contains detailed solutions to all the practical problems given at the end of each chapter in Advanced Accountancy, as also solutions to the problems set at the recent University and Professional Examinations. A special feature of the book is that the problems have been properly graded.
