Sweet, 2013-03-19 Laura is a dreamer When she was a little girl she knew she was destined to dream She fought it and that fight nearly killed her She found herself on the streets drug addicted away from her people and the elders who could guide her teach her to use her great power Eventually she learned that she could not deny The Creator She began to learn how to dream how to walk her walk She learned slowly at first but faster as time went by until she became the most powerful dreamer in ten thousand years She learns to travel from place to time to world with the ease of a thought Her power is incredible and sometimes it scares her when she wonders where it might lead her Dreamers that she has known have never fared well in the real world They were not born for it Purposed for it And they are at odds with it for all of their lives It feels the same for her She meets another Dreamer Dell They pass in their dreams But their dreams seem to be becoming one The same in purpose and destiny And she finds herself drawn to this man He awakens something in her that she has denied for years but now feels powerless to ignore Dell s life did not include dreaming but he learns that the creator chooses whom he chooses and the power is given to be used His life has been a series of misjudgments Paralyzing losses A young wife carrying their child mysteriously killed He has been directionless uninterested in life since that tragedy five years before Dell is a young man who is unsure of his walk What it should be Whether he can walk it He is not even sure what the Red Path is How to find it Make his own walk He finds himself pulled farther and farther into the Dreamer s Worlds against his will A world he does not understand But the things that at first made no sense begin to make sense and the real world he thought he knew falls away from him to be replaced by a spirit world that seems to be ever changing shifting Becoming something that is as yet unseen A mystery to him The beautiful and mysterious Laura pulls him deeper into the dreamers world yet she seems always to elude him Just out of reach Just out of view Gone for days and then there as if she had always been there A small sparrow in the trees of a dream world then a woman dark and beautiful before his eyes seeming to pull him closer to her against his will Laura works her way into his heart that has been ravaged from his losses and begins to heal it He knows then that he loves her and that he will follow her where ever she leads Bear has been a Spirit Wolf for thousands of years He can not clearly remember another shape another life But when his path begins to cross with Laura the most powerful dreamer the people have ever known and Dell who does not possess the dreaming power Laura does but nevertheless possesses something undisciplined but equally powerful he begins to see more of his own past wrapped up in these two strangers He begins to feel the calling of what he really was who he really was and he finds himself torn in two directions Should he put his power behind the man and the woman Without his help they may die Should he strike out on his own to find the truth that has eluded him for thousands of years For the first time in his long spirit life he does not feel a clear answer from The Creator Can the man be trusted The woman He can feel her great power greater than his own in many ways yet untamed Unfocused He could help her with that And what of the man What sort of power is it that he possesses Will he use it for his purpose Will he walk his walk If it calls for death will he answer Bear doesn t know He only knows that he feels he is on the edge of great and permanent change Change that could destroy entire worlds and that somehow the man and the woman hold the keys to his understanding IF YOU ARE A DREAMER R.
