

What is Federalism?

idea: The federal system of government utilized by the United States provides both benefits and responsibilities to the states, established government by dividing powers between the levels of government.

Question: Summarize the quotation below using the information in the Lesson Commentary on this previous page. (4 points each)

Lesson 1: An Overview of the Constitution

1. Create hypotheses: What do American citizens consider popular sovereignty?

Interpretation for strategic thinking as discussed above and highlighted: A basic principle of the U.S. government is that the people are the source of all authority.

2. Analyze the Chapter 1 that details the system of checks and balances. The purpose of the government is to maintain the system. Do you agree with this system? Why or why not? Yes, I agree that the government is needed to maintain order and that there are too many responsibilities. However, I think that the government is too big and too complicated, and that it is not always in the best interests of the people. I think that the government is too slow and too inefficient, and that it is not always in the best interests of the people.

Lesson 2: Amending the Constitution

3. Compare and Contrast What is similar about why Congress wanted to change the Constitution? What are the methods of changing the Constitution? Yes, I agree that the government is needed to maintain order and that there are too many responsibilities. However, I think that the government is too big and too complicated, and that it is not always in the best interests of the people. I think that the government is too slow and too inefficient, and that it is not always in the best interests of the people.

How Congress can change the Constitution through the process of proposing and ratifying amendments.

There are two methods of changing the Constitution. The first method is to propose an amendment to the Constitution, which can be done by Congress or by a constitutional convention. The second method is to ratify the amendment, which can be done by three-fourths of the states or by three-fourths of the members of Congress.

4. Identify Causes and Effects: How might it be necessary to the Constitution have
