Fences August Wilson, 1995 "Fences" By August Wilson. A Critical Analysis Christina Voss (married Lyons), 2021-10-20 Academic Paper from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade A Southern Illinois University Carbondale Department of English course ENGL 469 language English abstract The following essay tries to critically analyse the action and plot of Fences by August Wilson Troy a former criminal and unsuccessful although talented baseball player now family father and garbage collector who slowly drinks himself to death cheats on his wife fathers little girl half orphan and expels son Cory from his house He fences his home in to prevent Death from getting at what is his symbolically erecting fences between his family members and finally surrenders to Death right under his family tree baseball in the yard when he noticed that he has lost everything in life In this spirit the hero of the story family father Troy Maxson 53 years old a reformed criminal is a garbage collector and a frustrated previously unsuccessful baseball player He has dedicated all his pride and work to the support of his family consisting of his wife Rose 43 a 34 year old son from a previous marriage Lyons a jobless musician a 17 year old son Cory a wannabe football player from his marriage with Rose and a mentally disturbed brother Gabriel who had received a head wound in the Korean War and whom Troy cares for since he has defalcated his allowance to buy himself a house He means no harm but against the warnings of his true friend Bono he commits adultery and fathers a child whom his wife adopts when she hears that its mother died in childbirth but from that moment on their trusting marriage is destroyed and she even refuses to speak to him He on the other hand stagnates and refuses to acknowledge the changes that have taken place since he was a baseball player and now that his younger son wants to become a football player he intrigues against him and causes him to lose his place on the team Troy likewise does not understand his older son in whom he sees the constant money borrower although he always pays back While his wife Rose wants him to build a fence around the house to keep within her walls the people she loves Troy erects higher and higher fences between himself and the other family members The conflict escalates in a violent confrontation between Troy and Cory who are very much alike and the father banishes the son from his house When Troy finally notices that everything slipped out of his hands he challenges Death to come within his fences and get him and that is what he does in the form of a stroke or heart attack while Troy strikes the baseball hanging from his tree Fences August Wilson,1986 During the 1950 s Troy Maxson struggles against racism and tries to preserve his feelings of pride in himself

Bogumil, 1999 In this critical study Mary L. Bogumil argues that Wilson gives voice to disfranchised and marginalized African Americans who have been promised a place and a stake in the American dream but find access to the rights and freedoms promised to all Americans difficult The author maintains that Wilson not only portrays African Americans and the predicaments of American life but also sheds light on the atavistic connection African Americans have to their African ancestors

Baseball Mythology in August Wilson's Fences Verena Bär, 2013-07-17 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1-3 University of Bayreuth language English abstract Wilson said that he started his play Fences with the image of a man standing in his yard with a baby in his arms qtd in DeVries 25 This first picture developed into the Pulitzer Prize winning story of Troy Maxson a fifty three year old black garbage collector in Pittsburgh The play starts 1957 and ends 1965 with the death of Troy In the play we get an insight into Troy's life with his wife Rose his sons Cory and Lyons his brother Gabriel and his best friend Bono Troy has to face a lot of challenges First of all he has to live in a racist society which denied him to live his dream of being a baseball player Wang says that the tragic dimension of the play is delineated by the conflict between characters tenacious pursuit of their dreams and an environment which works adversely to prevent them from realizing their dreams Wang 63 Furthermore Troy has to work at a garbage department His hard job gets him just enough money to nourish his family Also in his family he has a lot of problems to deal with especially with his son Cory who wants to become a professional football player but also with his wife Rose The reason for his problems with Rose is that Troy has an affair with another woman Alberta and impregnated her So the story of the life of Troy Maxson is a story about racism friendship segregation family love shattered dreams rejection and of course baseball May All Your Fences Have Gates
