Southern Kings KC Mills,2016-06-23 The Masters brothers Yetti Hayes and Keys are the epitome of sibling love and loyalty Their circle is tight and no one comes before family Keys being the oldest holds the family together since all they have are each other However each brother often takes the leading role when it comes to business and life decisions Together they run an empire that has allotted them money respect and power which of course fuels tensions and has enemies lurking in the shadows Either way they stand tall and they stand together After surviving a traumatic childhood all three brothers are left a little unstable with hearts of stone It drives them to succeed in the streets but creates a void where matters of the heart are concerned Yetti especially was dealing with some serious demons one of which was forced by his mother choosing his life over hers His past has made him unwilling to open up and his motto in life has basically been hit and run as far as women were concerned Their only benefit to him was to satisfy his needs No connection no emotional commitments Reelle was exactly what Yetti needed although neither of them realize it at the time She is the ying to his yang so to speak and the peace in the middle of a storm After being burned by the one person she put her all into Reelle much like Yetti had no plans to give her heart away but unfortunately the universe had other plans Keys is set in his ways and enjoying life by his own terms His status has placed him in the position to have just about any woman he sets his sights on until he runs across Asha Their first encounter was one for the records She took control and forced him to play by her rules This only fueled Keys curiosity and had him chasing her for more Asha has no intention of being any man s fool not even the infamous Keys Masters As much as she s drawn to him she fully intends to make him earn a role in her life but little does she know that attitude is what wins him over Hayes is the baby of the family and seems to have it all together with a long term girlfriend and beautiful baby girl you d think life should be perfect however new struggles seem to be finding the two of them daily These brothers and the women they ve crossed paths with have a few life lessons to learn It could either make them or break them especially when you add jealousy and envy from outsiders The streets aren t kind when it comes to matters of the heart and defending your empire Hopefully they will all find their way out with their hearts intact
