The Wounded Heart Yvonne Yarbro-Bejarano, 2011-05-18 In her work as poet essayist editor dramatist and public intellectual Chicana lesbian writer Cherr e Moraga has been extremely influential in current debates on culture and identity as an ongoing open ended process Analyzing the in between spaces in Moraga's writing where race gender class and sexuality intermingle this first book length study of Moraga's work focuses on her writing of the body and related material practices of sex desire and pleasure Yvonne Yarbro Bejarano divides the book into three sections which analyze Moraga's writing of the body her dramaturgy in the context of both dominant and alternative Western theatrical traditions and her writing of identities and racialized desire Through close textual readings of Loving in the War Years Giving Up the Ghost Shadow of a Man Heroes and Saints The Last Generation and Waiting in the Wings Yarbro Bejarano contributes to the development of a language to talk about sexuality as potentially empowering the place of desire within politics and the intricate workings of racialized desire

Customary Law in the Modern World Francis Deng, 2009-10-16 Customary Law in the Modern World is the study of a coherent and well established legal system which is now operating in the context of a modern nation state and therefore poised between remaining relevant and the threat of marginalization Focusing on Sudan the author places customary law in its historical and cultural context analyzing the fundamental and traditional values that underlie customary law and the impact of the war between the North and the South that lasted intermittently for half a century He deals with the substance of customary law covering a wide variety of areas family law property law torts and criminal liability Drawing on interviews conducted with judges legislators and practicing lawyers on customary law and its future in the modern context the book challenges the development of customary law to build on the positives of tradition and the reform of its shortcomings particularly in the areas of human rights gender equality and the protection of children This book fills a gap in the literature on customary law and will be of great interest to anyone interested in law anthropology and politics

Ciceronian Oratory and the Ghosts of the Past Basil John Dufallo, 1999

Horrifying Sex Ruth Binstock Anolik, 2007-07-16 The Gothic moment in literary history arose in the age of the Enlightenment and the Gothic fascination with the unknown reflects the Enlightenment's response to the limits of reason Traditionally the emblem of the unknown that lurks in the Gothic is the supernatural the monstrous and the inhuman Often overlooked is the observation that Gothic texts are also haunted by figures that represent the mystery of sexuality This collection of essays sharpens that observation and asserts that Gothic anxieties about sexuality are likewise rooted in fear of the unknown represented by sexual practices and desires that either lie hidden or deviate from cultural norms The first three sections refer to popular as well as marginalized Gothic texts to portray the three prototypes of sexual deviance the female sexual Other in The Fatal Woman the male sexual Other in The Satanic Male and the homosexual Other in Homosexual Horror The fourth section covers literary works that celebrate sexual difference and question the idea that the sexually deviant is socially Other

Sex and Death in Eighteenth-Century Literature Jolene Zigarovich, 2013-05-02 This book discusses sex and death in the eighteenth century an era that among other forms produced the Gothic novel commencing the prolific examination of the century's shifting attitudes toward death and uncovering literary moments in which sexuality and death often conjoined By bringing together various viewpoints and historical relations the volume contributes to an emerging field of study and provides new perspectives on the ways in which the century approached an increasingly modern sense of sexuality and mortality It not only provides part of the needed discussion of the relationship between sex death history and eighteenth century culture but is a forum in which the ideas of several well respected critics converge producing a breadth of knowledge and a diversity of perspectives and methodologies previously unseen As the contributors demonstrate eighteenth century anxieties over mortality the body the soul and the corpse inspired many writers of the time to both implicitly and explicitly embed mortality and sexuality within their works By depicting the necrophilic tendencies of libertines and rapacious villains the fetishizing of death and mourning by virtuous heroines or the fantasy of preserving the body these authors demonstrate not only the tragic results of sexual play but the persistent fantasy of necro erotica This book shows that within the eighteenth century culture of profound modern change underworkings of death and mourning are often eroticized that sex is often equated with death as punishment or loss of the self and that the sex death dialectic lies at the discursive center of normative conceptions of gender desire and social power

The Semiotics of Exile in Literature H. Zeng,2010-09-27 Furthering the scholarship on writers and artists as diverse as Lord Byron Edvard Munch Sylvia Plath and Jorge Luis Borges Zeng probes the semiotics of exile In artistic traditions the world over exile exerts a potent and complex mythmaking power whether it is manifest as a geographical dislocation or as a sense of cultural or psychological alienation

Service Economies Jin-kyung Lee,2010 A compelling alternative narrative of the modern miracle of South Korea

Irish Theatre Eamonn Jordan,2023-09-27 This book on modern and contemporary Irish theatre traces how social cultural and economic capital are circulated in order to demonstrate complex and often contradictory outlooks on equality inequality Individual chapters analyse property ownership and inheritance wealth acquisition employment conditions educational access intercultural encounters sexual intimacy and violation and acts of resistance protest and solidarity This book addresses complex intergenerational intercultural racial sectarian ethnic gender and inter and intraclass dynamics from the perspective of ranked objectifying exploitative and coercive relationships but also in terms of commonalities complicities reciprocations and retaliations Notable are the significances of wealth precarity and shaming the consequences of anti materialistic dramaturgical leanings the pathologising of success the fraught nature of solidarity and the problematics of merit divisive partitioning and muddled m salliances Ultimately the book wonders about how Irish theatre distinguishes between tolerable and intolerable inequalities that are culturally and socially but principally economically derived

The Last Neighborhood Cops Fritz Umbach,2011-01-05 In recent years community policing has transformed American law enforcement by promising to build trust between citizens and officers Today three quarters of American police departments claim to embrace the strategy But decades before the phrase was coined the New York City Housing Authority Police Department HAPD had pioneered community based crime fighting strategies The Last Neighborhood Cops reveals the forgotten history of the residents and cops who forged community policing in the public housing complexes of New York City during the second half of the twentieth century Through a combination of poignant storytelling and historical analysis Fritz Umbach draws on buried and confidential police records and voices of retired officers and older residents to help explore the rise and fall of the HAPD s community based strategy while questioning its tactical effectiveness The result is a unique perspective on contemporary debates of community policing and historical developments chronicling the influence of poor and working class populations on public policy making English
