It then goes on to examine why maltreatment occurs and what its consequences are. Next it turns to prevention, treatment, and intervention as well as legal perspectives. John, Barbara Lotz, Elisabeth Schömbucher, 2024-09-26 This book critically examines assumptions about age, women, and gender. Amidst all the attention that has been granted to difference and inequality, however uneven and unsatisfactory in terms of class and caste, race and ethnicity, sexuality and gender, disability, religion, and nation, questions of age and its importance for feminism have been less well defined. Drawing on recent literature on childhood, the chapters in this volume cover a range of fresh perspectives. These include: What kinds of biological, legal, chronological histories age has and the fundamental ways in which these links are being recast. How gender differences occupy a prominent place in historical constructions of identities especially the frequent infantilisation of women who are never seen as adults in the full sense of the term nor equally allowed to be children beyond the first years of life Ways in which class caste gender and ethnicity shaped classrooms and opportunities for education in the colonial period and the 20th century to produce new ideas of childhood Gendered outcomes for children in the context of a long entanglement of law with labour transformations in practices of parenting over time and how the concept of care emerged in both Western and non Western societies An incisive study on how childhoods have come to be understood this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of gender studies childhood studies family studies modern history legal history social policy social psychology education and sociology This volume will also interest parents paediatricians family health providers teachers and educators and anyone who works with children

Girls, Power and International Development Rosie Walters, 2025-05-28 The United Nations Foundation s Girl Up campaign has been critiqued for depoliticising global and gender inequalities portraying girls from the Global South as responsible for lifting entire communities out of poverty and encouraging girls in the Global North to see themselves as the saviours of their Southern counterparts Drawing on focus groups with Girl Up members from the UK US and Malawi this book demonstrates how girls reflect critically on the Girl Up discourse reject its individualistic vision of girls empowerment and interact with their Northern Southern counterparts in a spirit of mutual learning and respect Its analysis demonstrates how the girls use participation in the campaign to develop their own more complex radical and collective visions of girls empowerment
