Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor, 1967 Literacy and Power Hilary Janks, 2009-10-16 Hilary Janks addresses key questions about literacy and power in this landmark text that is both engaging and accessible Her central argument is that competing orientations to critical literacy education domination power access diversity design foreground one over the other but are crucially interdependent and need to work together to create possibilities for redesign and social action that serve a social justice agenda She examines the theory underpinning each orientation and develops new theory in the argument for interdependence and integration Sitting at the interface between theory and practice constantly moving from one to the other the text is rich with examples of how to use these orientations in real teaching contexts and how to use them to counterbalance one another In the groundbreaking final chapter Janks considers how the rationalist underpinning of critical literacy tends to exclude the non rational shows ways of working beyond reason pleasure and play desire and the unconscious and makes the case that these need to be taken seriously given their power to cut across the work of critical literacy educators working from any orientation Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa.

Parliament (1994-). National Assembly,1998 Transition Towards Gender Equality Sonja Gierse-Arsten ,2024-01-30

Worldwide Namibia ranks high regarding gender equality However many women are intimidated by violence perpetrated by men This book is based on a social anthropological field research in the small town of Outjo situated in Northern Central Namibia over a period of 14 months Gender is learnt lived and reproduced in a societal frame Violence against women too is perpetrated by men in a societal context By using mainly qualitative research methods Sonja Gierse Arsten looks at male and female perspectives to reach a holistic understanding and to provide a basis for sustainable changes towards equal gender relations She traces the transition from a hierarchical gender system during colonial times to the aspired equal gender relations in present Namibia Current challenges characterised by poverty and great economic inequalities form the framework in which gender is performed and violence perpetrated This study offers inspirations to re think gender to reach substantive gender equality and to overcome the normalisation of violence The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department,1928 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope ,1977 Language and Language Behavior Abstracts ,1980 Resources in Education ,1992-04 Bantoe-onderwysblad ,1978 Folia Phoniatica Et Logopaedica ,2001 Settling for Less Michael Cosser,Jacques Du Toit,Mariette Visser,2004 This study gives statistical and evidential illustration to what influences student choices and behavioral patterns as well as trends in the youth market in South Africa Postcolonial Polysystems Haidee Kruger,2012-12-19 Postcolonial Polysystems The Production and Reception of Translated Children s Literature in South Africa is an original and provocative contribution to the field of children s literature research and translation studies It draws on a variety of methodologies to provide a perspective both product and process oriented on the ways in which translation contributes to the production of children s literature in South Africa with a special interest in language and power as well as post and neocolonial hybridity The book explores the forces that affect the use of translation in producing children s literature in various languages in South Africa and shows how some of these forces precipitate in the selection production and reception of translated children s books in Afrikaans and English It breaks new ground in its interrogation of aspects of translation theory within the multilingual and postcolonial context of South Africa as well as in its innovative experimental investigation of the reception of domesticating and foreignising strategies in translated picture books Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1979 Research in Education ,1970
