Dream Town Laura Meckler, 2023-08-22 Winner of the Ohio Book Award Finalist of the Malott Prize for Recording Community Activism Can a group of well intentioned people fulfill the promise of racial integration in America In this searing and intimate examination of the ideals and realities of racial integration award winning Washington Post journalist Laura Meckler tells the story of a decades long pursuit in Shaker Heights Ohio and uncovers the roadblocks that have threatened progress time and again in housing in education and in the promise of shared community In the late 1950s Shaker Heights began groundbreaking work that would make it a national model for housing integration And beginning in the seventies it was known as a crown jewel in the national move to racially integrate schools The school district built a reputation for academic excellence and diversity serving as a model for how white and Black Americans can thrive together Meckler herself a product of Shaker Heights takes a deeper look into the place that shaped her investigating its complicated history and its ongoing challenges in order to untangle myth from truth She confronts an enduring and troubling question if Shaker Heights has worked so hard at racial equity why does a racial academic achievement gap persist In telling the stories of the Shakerites who have built and lived in this community Meckler asks What will it take to fulfill the promise of racial integration in America What compromises are people of all races willing to make What does success look like and has Shaker achieved it The result is a complex and masterfully reported portrait of a place that while never perfect has achieved more than most and a road map for communities that seek to do the same Includes black and white images What About Us?
