Conflictology Francis Onditi, 2020-05-28 Over the past three decades scholars students and policy makers studying and engaged in conflict resolution have veered between conflict management and resolution However the changing nature of conflict which is taking the form of radicalization and extremism are deeply rooted in individual s ideology personalities and genes hence rendering the conventional macro level power balance analytics obsolete The psychology and human genetics are at the center of this evolution This shift in conflict trends and methods of warfare in Africa and the world over demands that we search for alternative approaches mechanisms and innovative response It is against this background that this new book initiates a fundamental debate on how interdisciplinary adventure could increase the understanding of man kind and the socio biological systems surrounding man hence the emphasis on the discipline of Conflictology to embody scientific approaches methods and prescription to conflict resolution For instance does individual s gene influence human behaviours such as hate If so can this be corrected through gene transposition If human relations should be anchored on peace what are these genetic and behavioural factors that creat hate and violence How then should such a gene or neurobiological system be altered in order to prevent extremism and radicalization Islam in German East Africa, 1885-1918 Jörg

Haustein, 2023-07-14 In this rich and multi layered deconstruction of German colonial engagement with Islam J rg Haustein shows how imperial agents in Germany s largest colony wielded the knowledge category of Islam in a broad set of debates ranging from race language and education to slavery law conflict and war These representations of Mohammedanism often invoked for particular political ends amounted to a serious misreading of Muslims in East Africa with significant long term effects As the first in depth account of the politics of Islam in German East Africa the book makes an essential contribution to the history of religion in Tanzania before British rule It also offers a template for re reading the colonial archive in a manner that recovers Muslim agency beyond a European paradigm of religion Zanzibar Was a Country Nathaniel

Mathews, 2024-04-09 Zanzibar Was a Country traces the history of a Swahili speaking Arab diaspora from East Africa to Oman In Oman today whole communities in Muscat speak Swahili have recent East African roots and practice forms of sociality associated with the urban culture of the Swahili coast These Omani Zanzibaris offer the most significant contemporary example in the Gulf as well as in the wider Indian Ocean region of an Afro Arab community that maintains a living connection to Africa in a diasporic setting While they come from all over East Africa a large number are postrevolution exiles and emigr s from Zanzibar Their stories provide a framework for the broader transregional entanglements of decolonization in Africa and the Arabian Gulf Using both vernacular historiography and life histories of men and women from the community Nathaniel Mathews argues that the traumatic memories of the Zanzibar Revolution of 1964 are important to nation building on both sides of the Indian Ocean Germans on the Kenyan Coast Nina Berman, 2017-01-16 Shed s light on the romantic psychosexual and psychosocial and economic entanglements that tie German tourists to their Kenyan hosts

Daily Nation Diani a coastal town on the Indian Ocean is significantly defined by a large European presence that has spurred economic development and is also supported by close relationships between Kenyans and European immigrants and tourists Nina Berman looks carefully at the repercussions that these economic and social interactions have brought to life on the Kenyan coast She explores what happens when poorer and less powerful members of a community are forced to give way to profit based real estate development what it means when most of Diani s schools and water resources are supplied by funds from immigrants and what the impact of mixed marriages is on notions of kinship and belonging as well as the economy This unique story about a small Kenyan town also recounts a wider tale of opportunity oppression resilience exploitation domination and accommodation in a world of economic political and social change In this richly detailed book Nina Berman tracks the influx of thousands of German speaking tourists and residents especially in the 1990s and the making of a distinctive Kenyan European cultural enclave in the coastal community of Diani as many of these visitors choose to extend their stay as long term residents Ann Biersteker author of Masomo ya Kisasa Contemporary Readings in Swahili An informative and thought provoking work that deserves to be read by scholars of Kenya and those interested in globalized structures of gentrification north south humanitarian assistance and love and romance in Africa African Studies Quarterly

The Shadow of Kenyan Democracy Dominic Burbidge,2016-03-09 Why has democracy failed to reduce corruption in Kenya Framing the challenge in game theoretical terms Dominic Burbidge examines how mutual expectations between citizens dictate the success or failure of political reforms Since 1992 Kenya has conducted multiparty elections with the hope of promoting accountability and transparency in government This is being undermined by ongoing corruption and an increasingly centralised state response to terrorism Providing a nuanced assessment of democracy s difficult road in Kenya Burbidge discusses the independent role being played by widespread social expectations of corruption Through

Sweet Deal, Bitter Landscape Youjin B. Chung, 2024-01-15 Sweet Deal Bitter Landscape brings us to the mid 2000s when the Tanzanian government struck a deal with a foreign investor to convert more than 20 000 hectares of long settled coastal land to establish a sugarcane plantation Ten years on the deal was abruptly abandoned Popularly deemed a case of hubristic global development critics classified this project another in a line of failed modern resource grabs Youjin B Chung argues such tidy accounts conceal myriad and profound implications not only how gender history and culture shaped the project s trajectory but also how even in its stalled state the deal upended social life on the land by setting in motion incomplete processes of development and dispossession With rich ethnographic detail and visual storytelling Sweet Deal Bitter Landscape traces the lived experiences of diverse rural women and men as they struggled for survival under a seemingly endless condition of liminality In so doing she raises critical questions about the directions and stakes of postcolonial development and nation building in Tanzania and the shifting meanings of identity and belonging for those on the margins of capitalist agrarian transformation
