Supervision Across the Content Areas Sally J. Zepeda, 2014-05-22 You became a school leader after succeeding in your particular content area and/or grade level. Now you're responsible for the entire school. You are accountable for everything that goes on, including results from those who teach outside your areas of original expertise. Supervision Across the Content Areas provides tools and strategies to help you effectively supervise all of your teachers, including those in content areas or grade levels in which you may not have had personal classroom experience. While focusing on four key content areas: Mathematics, Science, English Language Arts, and Social Studies, this book also provides supervision tools for other content areas: foreign languages, fine arts, physical education, etc. Also included are tools and strategies to help you supervise teachers who use instructional strategies such as differentiated instruction, Socratic Seminars, cooperative learning, and inquiry; apply local and national standards to frame your instructional program; ensure accountability of teachers who use multiple intelligences, brain-based learning, and other innovations.      Promoting Literacy Development Patricia A.

Antonacci, Catherine M. O'Callaghan, 2011-05-02 Promoting Literacy Development: 50 Research-Based Strategies for K-8 Learners presents the essential literacy strategies that are used by classroom teachers for teaching reading and writing to children in elementary schools. Intended as a supplement to primary texts that are utilized in the reading methods courses, the proposed book will be used principally in undergraduate and graduate teacher education programs. Reading and English language arts are the primary curricular areas that are the focus of this supplementary text, which provides quick access to the essential instructional literacy strategies.
