Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice in Africa J. Jarpa Dawuni, 2022-10-17 Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice edited by J Jarpa Dawuni propounds layered intersectionality as a paradigm for examining how gendered factors affect women's access to justice whether as judges or litigants Through intersectional and decolonial frameworks the contributors analyze the lived experiences of women and their access to justice by situating the courtroom as both a spatial and a temporal arena for seeking justice as litigants and for seeking access to the bench as judges This book examines patterns of mutually reinforcing discriminatory practices that women share based on common gender identities and depending on which identities are at play at a given point in time in both traditional and statutory courts The book provides recommendations for various justice sector providers African Books in Print, 1993 Changing Environments Susan Bermingham, 2000 Designed to help students make the step up from GCSE to A level study this text aims to provide a full range of lively and interesting resources Case studies help to reinforce and illustrate geographical concepts and exam practice has been included Higher Education in Malawi J. P. G. Chimombo, 2002 The Environment and Science and Technology Education A. V. Baez, G. W. Knamiller, J. C. Smyth, 2013-10-22 The Environment and Science and Technology Education covers topics on key issues in environmental education school based primary and secondary education and community based environmental education The book also discusses topics on tertiary professional and vocational environmental education and non formal public environmental education The text will give practical help to teachers in all countries in order to raise standards of education in those topics essential for development Education Indicators for Malawi, 1985-1989, 1991 State of M&E in Malawi, 2014 Innovations in Science and Technology Education, 1990

Mapping Equity and Quality in Mathematics Education Bill Atweh, Mellony Graven, Walter Secada, Paola Valero, 2011-01-06 Concerns about quality mathematics education are often posed in terms of the types of mathematics that are worthwhile and valuable for both the student and society in general and about how to best support students so that they can develop this mathematics Concerns about equity are about who is excluded from the opportunity to develop quality mathematics within our current practices and systems and about how to remove social barriers that systematically disadvantage those students This collection of chapters summarises our learning about the achievement of both equity and quality agendas in mathematics education and to move forward the debate on their importance for the field Testing and Inclusive Schooling Bjorn Hamre, Anne Morin, Christian Ydesen, 2018-05-11 Testing and Inclusive Schooling provides a comparative perspective on seemingly incompatible global agendas and efforts to include all children in the general school system thus reducing exclusion With an examination of the international testing culture and the politics of inclusion currently permeating national school reforms this book raises a critical and constructive discussion of these movements which appear to support one another yet simultaneously offer profound contradictions With contributions from around the world the book analyses the dilemma arising between reforms that urge schools to move towards a constantly higher academic level and those who practice a politics of inclusion leading to a greater degree of student diversity The book considers the types of problems that arise when reforms implemented at the international level are transformed into policies and practices firmly placing global educational efforts into perspective by highlighting a range of different cases at both national and local levels Testing and Inclusive Schooling sheds light on new possibilities for educational improvements in global and local contexts and is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students interested in international and comparative education assessment technologies and practices inclusion educational psychology and educational policy Beyond the Language Issue Anja Oed, Uta Reuster-Jahn, 2008
