O'Reilly, 2010 Conjugal Chastity in Pope Wojtyla

explains how Karol Wojtyla philosopher theologian and Pope tried to show how the sexual act within the context of marriage is an expression of love After explaining how love as goodwill is the foundation of conjugal love the correct relationship between love and justice is clarified The negative dimension of the personalistic norm of Wojtyla is then critically examined Conjugal love is explained in terms of conjugal beneficence based on conjugal benevolence This love leads to total self giving in each conjugal act The procreative meaning of the conjugal act seems to be its most formal element the soul of the act so to speak the unitive element is described as an essential property of this act something which necessarily flows from the conjugal act which is open to life Chastity is the virtue that allows sexuality to be integrated into a love which is truly personal and reflects Trinitarian Love

The Reception of Vatican II Matthew L. Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2017 A sequel to Vatican II Renewal within Tradition OUP 2008 The Reception of Vatican II shows how the Council has been received and interpreted over the course of the more than fifty years since it concluded The meaning of the Second Vatican Council has been fiercely contested since before it was even over and since its completion has seen a battle for the soul of the Church waged through the interpretation of Council documents Each essay in this volume looks at how one of those documents has been interpreted in the post Vatican II era and points the way forward for its future reception

The Heart Has Its Reasons Beáta Tóth, 2015-10-27 This book explores a hitherto neglected area of theological anthropology the unity of human emotionality and rationality embodied in the biblical concept of the heart While the theological contours of human reason have for long been clearly drawn and presented as the exclusive seat of the image of God affectivity has been relegated to a secondary position With the reintegration of the body into recent philosophical and theological discourses a number of questions have arisen if the image also resides in the body how does this change one's view of the theological significance of human affectivity In what way is our likeness to God realized in the whole of what we are Can one overcome the traditional dissociation between intellect and affectivity by a renewed theory of love In conversation with patristic and medieval authors e.g. Irenaeus Tertullian Gregory of Nyssa Maximus Aquinas and in dialogue with more recent interlocutors Pascal Ricoeur Marion Milbank John Paul II this work pursues a novel theological vision of the essential unity of our humanity

Marriage As A Conjugal Reality Daniel Avila, 2018-02 Resource for Catholics and others called to promote and defend marriage defined as the union of one man and one woman Recounts Marriage Battle of Massachusetts 1997 2007 and offers theological reflection on why sexual difference matters as the image of God's conjugal love

Christian Wisdom Meets Modernity, 2016-05-05 The Illuminating Modernity series examines the great but lesser known thinkers in the Romantic Thomist tradition such as Erich Przywara and Fernand Ulrich and shows how outstanding 20th century theologians like Ratzinger and von Balthasar have depended on classical Thomist thought and how they radically reinterpreted this thought. The chapters in this volume are dedicated to the encounter between the presuppositions and claims of modern intellectual culture and the Christian confession that the crucified and resurrected Jesus is the power and wisdom of God and is the lord of history and of his church. The scholars contributing to this discussion do not assume that Christianity and modernity are two discrete entities which can be readily defined nor do they presume that Christian wisdom and modernity meet each other only in conflict or by coincidence. They engage with a variety of great figures: Kierkegaard, Heidegger, Rahner, Przywara, Guardini, Karl Barth and Karol Wojtyła to illustrate the connection between modernism and Christian wisdom. The volume concludes with a programmatic statement for the renewal of Christian philosophy that has been able to retain the cosmotheological vision as outlined by Mezei in the final chapter.

Person and Value Grzegorz Ignatik, 2021-04-30. Person and Value by Karol Wojtyła's Personalistic and Normative Theory of Man. Morality and Love discusses the central themes of Karol Wojtyła's personalistic teaching in a concise yet comprehensive manner. Grzegorz Ignatik presents a philosophical understanding of the human person and human action that conforms with the phenomenological and metaphysical methodologies used by Wojtyła himself. This book pays special attention to Wojtyła's phenomenological insights concerning the significance of value for human life. Ignatik's reflections are based on his extensive research of original texts published and yet unpublished, written by Karol Wojtyła in his original tongue, Polish. By returning to and rediscovering the original sources, Person and Value provides a fresh and profound engagement with the anthropological and ethical thought of the future Pope John Paul II. Written for all who wish to encounter one of the most illustrious minds of the twentieth century, this book will be an indispensable key to reading his works.

Desert, Wilderness, Wasteland, and Word Jacques Ellul, 2023-04-05. Desert, Wilderness, Wasteland, and Word features an English translation of a recently discovered and until now unpublished essay of Jacques Ellul's that examines the significance of the desert from biblical, theological, and ethical perspectives. It also provides an introduction that contextualizes Ellul's piece and five incendiary essays that critically reflect on Ellul's work. Altogether, this volume offers fresh and provocative insight into the writings of Jacques Ellul during a historical moment that appears to be on its way to or already in a desert, wilderness, and wasteland with many people in it who are desperate for encounters with a new revitalizing Word.

Man and Woman, One in Christ Philip Barton Payne, 2015-05-05. Does Paul teach a hierarchy of authority of man over woman or does he teach the full equality of man and woman in the church and home? In Man and Woman, One in Christ, Philip Barton Payne answers this question and more, injecting crucial insights into the discussion of Paul's view of women. Condensing over three decades of research on this topic, Payne's rigorous exegetical analysis demonstrates the consistency of Paul's message on this topic and its coherence with the rest of his theology.
