Developing Countries in the World Trading System Ramesh Adhikari,Premachandra Athukoralge,2002-01-01 Experience suggests that trade liberalization has contributed substantially to the remarkable growth of industrialized countries However for various reasons many developing countries have not yet been able to integrate successfully into global markets and reap the growth inducing and poverty reducing benefits of trade This book argues that while developing countries are heavily represented in the WTO accounting for about four fifths of its membership there is still plenty of scope for the world trading system to work more effectively in their interests Sessional Papers Great Britain.
