Cupchik,2016-07-28 Gerald C Cupchik builds a bridge between science and the humanities arguing that interactions between mind and body in everyday life are analogous to relations between subject matter and style in art According to emotional phase theory emotional reactions emerge in a perfect storm whereby meaningful situations evoke bodily memories that unconsciously shape and unify the experience Similarly in expressionist or impressionist painting an evocative visual style can spontaneously colour the experience and interpretation of subject matter Three basic situational themes encompass complementary pairs of primary emotions attachment happiness sadness assertion fear anger and absorption interest disgust Action episodes in which a person adapts to challenges or seeks to realize goals benefit from energizing bodily responses which focus attention on the situation while providing feedback in the form of pleasure or pain regarding success or failure In high representational paintings style is transparent making it easier to fluently identify subject matter to explain how values are socially transmitted Literature and Moral Feeling Patrick Colm Hogan, 2022-05-05 An influential body of recent work on moral psychology has stressed the interconnections among ethics narrative and empathy Yet as Patrick Colm Hogan argues this work is so vague in its use of the term narrative as to be almost substanceless and this vagueness is in large part due to the neglect of literary study Extending his previous work on universal story structures Hogan argues that we can transform ill defined intuitions about narrative and ethics into explicit and systematic accounts of the deep connections between moral attitudes and narratives These connections are in turn inseparable from empathy a concept that Hogan proceeds to clarify and defend against a number of widely read critiques In the course of the book Hogan develops and illustrates his arguments through analyses of global narratives constructing illuminating ethical interpretations of literary works ranging from Shakespeare to Chinese drama and the Bhagavad Gita Social Intelligence and Nonverbal Communication Robert J. Sternberg, Aleksandra Kostić, 2020-01-25 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the latest developments in the social psychology of nonverbal communication It explores topics including social skill empathy adaptive advantage emotion reading and emotion hiding and examines personal charisma memory and communicating with robots Together the authors present diverse cutting edge research on nonverbal social intelligence as an adaptive strategy for survival and success The collection provides an effective demonstration of the interdisciplinary nature of this topic and its relevance to researchers across the social sciences and beyond Interpersonal Emotion Dynamics in Close Relationships Ashley K. Randall, Dominik Schoebi, 2018-09-27 Emotions play a powerful role in close relationships Significant progress has been made in understanding the temporal features of emotions associated with the development and maintenance of close relationships across the lifespan This advancement has revealed further questions which theories help conceptualize interpersonal emotion dynamics What are the ways researchers can assess and model these dynamics How do interpersonal emotion dynamics manifest in different close relationships And do these emotion dynamics contribute to the maintenance or dissolution of relationships Interpersonal Emotion Dynamics in Close Relationships addresses these and other questions by bringing together state of the art perspectives from scholars widely recognized for their contributions to the study of emotions in relationships Each chapter defines interpersonal emotion dynamics reviews methodological or empirical work and offers important directions for future research This volume will be a valuable resource for students researchers and practitioners interested in understanding the role of emotions in relationships From Self to Social Relationships Martijn van Zomeren, 2016-07-07 What is it that moves and motivates us in our lives Martijn van Zomeren proposes that social relationships are at the essence of this key question and in a fascinating investigation into human motivation he develops a novel and integrative psychological theory termed selvations theory The theory suggests that we are essentially relational beings that seek to regulate relationships in response to felt changes in our network of relationships selvations However we need to do this in culturally appropriate ways and this is where our culturally construed self comes to be of use From Self to Social Relationships constitutes a powerful argument about human essence integrating major theories in and around psychology which has strong implications for the study and practice of social motivation
