Understanding Emotions for Women Jack Larson, April von Wedel, Nancy Higgins, 2020-09-05 In the Christian community there is sometimes confusion about the purpose of emotions and their importance to our spiritual growth and maturity For example negative emotions may be viewed as sinful or emotions in general may be regarded as untrustworthy or a sign of weakness God designed us with emotions so we must understand how our emotions affect our thinking and acting to become healthy and mature We must also learn how to relate to other people and God in a healthy way at the emotional level Our emotions are a direct pipeline to our hearts and how we bond and connect at the most basic and intimate level This workbook is designed for a small group led by a trained facilitator Understanding Emotions is a 12 week group experience that includes unique connecting with God exercises The group members will work together on emotional and relational healing issues in the context of a safe community The suggested method is for the group to cover one lesson per week During the week before each meeting group members will read the lesson and complete the answers to the questions at their own individual pace At the group meetings there will be opportunities to share answers to many of the questions and as the group progresses to bond with the other group members and bring God into their healing process This workbook is part of a group experience developed by Restoring

When people look at you what do they see Do they see Jesus Let s be honest In many places today the church is not particularly well liked It s viewed as judgmental mean ignorant and intolerant If we want to have any influence on the world or even the people next door we need to give some serious consideration to why that is How have Christians a people who are called by God to be the most loving caring understanding and joyous people in the world come to be viewed as the exact opposite How can we change that Craveable is an all out call for Christianity to return to the allure that caused the church to win the world in the first century It is time to start Listening as Jesus listened Loving as He loved Leading as He led In other words if God s church and His people were to act like Jesus loving the unlovable accepting all the unacceptable and demonstrating a life of faith and joy we would be successful in turning our perception from being unlikeable to actually being CRAVEABLE

Judging and Emotion Sharyn Roach Anleu,Kathy Mack,2021-02-03 Judging and Emotion investigates how judicial officers understand experience display manage and deploy emotions in their everyday work in light of their fundamental commitment to impartiality Judging and Emotion challenges the conventional assumption that emotion is inherently unpredictable stressful or a personal quality inconsistent with impartiality Extensive empirical research with Australian judicial officers demonstrates the ways emotion emotional capacities and emotion work are integral to judicial practice Judging and Emotion articulates a broader conception of emotion as a social practice emerging from interaction and demonstrates how judicial officers undertake emotion work and use emotion as a resource to achieve impartiality A key insight is that institutional requirements including conceptions of impartiality as dispassion do not completely determine the emotion dimensions of judicial work Through their everyday work judicial officers construct and maintain the boundaries of an impartial judicial role which necessarily incorporates emotion and emotion work Building on a growing interest in emotion in law and social sciences this book will be of considerable importance to socio legal scholars sociologists the judiciary legal practitioners and all users of the courts
