Evaluating Textbooks and Their Potential for EFL Learning and Teaching. A Case Study Saleem Arif,2020-04-27 Master s Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Miscellaneous grade 1 0 University of Duisburg Essen Department of Anglophone Studies language English abstract In contrast to the reality outside of school textbooks especially in the context of teaching English as a foreign language TEFL are still the most important medium for language learning purposes today However the academic evaluation of textbooks is surprisingly a rather neglected field of study Also the very few studies that evaluate an EFL textbook mostly only consider the technical dimension of analysis such as the theoretical perspective of EFL methodology Yet to gain a more holistic impression of a textbook one should also include the practical perspective of EFL teachers Therefore the present case study critically evaluates one exemplary textbook combining the theoretical perspective of EFL didactics and the practical perspective of EFL teachers The TEFL textbook chosen for this case study is titled English G21 A5 published by Cornelsen in 2010 It is designed for grade 9 at Gymnasium in Germany Taking Unit 1 of this textbook as an example this paper aims at examining the potential of this textbook for EFL learning and teaching The central question is whether the textbook meets the various requirements posed to a textbook including the numerous principles that are part of contemporary EFL methodology and central educational standards In the first part of the analysis chapter 4 the question is in how far the textbook meets the theoretical requirements of TEFL For the second part of the analysis chapter 5 a small survey was carried out conducting qualitative interviews with four different teachers Employing qualitative content analysis the survey intends to find out about the teachers opinion on the textbook focusing on the question how the teachers assess the value of the textbook for their teaching practice Prior to the analysis it is however necessary to elaborate on some theoretical background chapter 2 This involves describing the main paradigms of contemporary EFL methodology as well as illustrating relevant theoretical context in relation to the term textbook and textbook evaluation revealing central requirements EFL textbooks need to fulfil The aim of this twofold description is to develop a list of criteria section 2.2.4 that will be used as the foundation of the textbook evaluation The selected textbook will be introduced in more detail in chapter 3

Teaching to Change the World Jeannie Oakes, Martin Lipton, Lauren Anderson, Jamy Stillman, 2018-01-29 Teaching to Change the World is an up-to-the-moment engaging social justice-oriented introduction to education and teaching and the challenges and opportunities they present. Both foundational and practical, the chapters are organized around conventional topics but in a way that consistently integrates a coherent story that explains why schools are as they are. This thoroughly revised fifth edition remains a vital introduction to the profession for a new generation of teachers who seek to become purposeful, knowledgeable practitioners in our ever-changing educational landscape for those teachers who see the potential for education to change the world. Features and Updates of the New Edition: Fully updated Chapter 1: The U.S. Schooling Dilemma reflects our current state of education after the 2016 U.S. presidential election. First-person observations from teachers, including first-year teachers, continue to offer vivid, authentic pictures of what teaching to change the world means and involves. Additional coverage of the ongoing effects of Common Core highlights the heated public discourse around teaching and teachers and charter schools. Attention to diversity and inclusion is treated as integral to all chapters woven throughout rather than tacked on as separate units. Digging Deeper resources on the new companion website include
