Frindle - Literature Kit Gr. 3-4 Staci Marck,2009-12-01 Make learning about words fun again with a clever tale about a boy who invents a new word for the dictionary Our resource is ready made saving you time when preparing a lesson plan for this novel Set a purpose for reading by establishing which vocabulary words students are not familiar with Show your comprehension of the novel with multiple choice questions In a journal prompt use your critical thinking skills to predict what career Nick will have when he grows up Understand the difference between similes and metaphors by writing your own in a writing task Share your favorite part of the story by drawing a cartoon strip Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom s Taxonomy additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included About the Novel Frindle is the story of a clever time wasting schemer s innovative plan to create his own word for the dictionary Ten year old Nick Allen has a reputation for developing ingenious plans that distract teachers For the first time ever his diversions fail to create the desired results in

Mrs Granger's fifth grade language arts class. Instead of distracting her, he ends up with an extra assignment and oral presentation on how new entries are added to the dictionary. Surprisingly, the boring assignment leads to Nick's most clever idea yet when he decides to create his own new word, frindle. Nick recruits five fellow students to support his efforts in changing the name of pen to frindle. Their insistence on referring to pens as frindles causes a major commotion when Mrs Granger's passion for vocabulary and strict emphasis on the correct use of language result in a battle of wills that threatens to disrupt the whole school. Their war of words spreads beyond the school, resulting in after-school punishments, a home visit from the principal, national publicity, economic opportunities for local businessmen, and eventually inclusion in the dictionary.

A unique view on a survival story helps students to value the need for companionship. The comprehension quiz works great as a study guide for a final exam. Students begin by imagining the hardships with living as a pioneer on the American prairies. Answer true or false questions about Sarah's letter to Anna and Caleb. Complete sentences from the story with their missing vocabulary words. Do some investigation to learn about mica something that Sarah says her dune sparkled with. Use events from the story to inspire a tercet poem. Students imagine interviewing Sarah about her experiences. Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy, additional crossword, word search, comprehension quiz, and answer key are also included. About the Novel: A story filled with wisdom, gentle humor, and the practical concerns necessary for a satisfying life. This Newbery Medal winning story is based on the true adventures of a family living on the vast prairie in the early years of the 20th century. The story begins when Anna and Caleb, missing their mother who died, wish for another woman to make their father laugh again. Sarah responds to an ad stating she will come by train wearing a yellow bonnet and that she is plain and tall. And into their lives comes Sarah with her own needful loneliness and searching to help them create a whole family. But life on the endless prairie can be hard and unforgiving, taking all a person's strength and courage just to survive.
