Every Short Story:

The Short Story Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris Short Story Classics (American) ... William Patten, 1905 The Academy, 1898

Features Laurie R King's short story Beekeepers for Beginners and an excerpt from Garment of Shadows Fallen Angel Robert Morgan, 2023-11-15 Over 170 years after his death Edgar Allan Poe remains a figure of enduring fascination and speculation for readers scholars and devotees of the weird and macabre In Fallen Angel acclaimed novelist and poet Robert Morgan offers a new biography of this gifted complicated author Focusing on Poe's personal relationships Morgan chronicles how several women influenced his life and art Eliza Poe his mother died before he turned three but she haunted him ever after The loss of Elmira Royster Shelton his first and last love devastated him and inspired much of his poetry Morgan shows that Poe known for his gothic and supernatural writing was also a poet of the natural world who helped invent the detective story science fiction analytical criticism and symbolist aesthetics Though he died at age forty Poe left behind works of great originality and vision that Fallen Angel explores with depth and feeling Short-Stories Masterpieces, Vol. 1 French Authors J. Berg Esenwein, 2024-08-19 J Berg Esenwein's Short Stories Masterpieces Vol 1 French is a timeless collection that delves into the human condition through the lens of French literature This anthology features works from celebrated French authors presenting a rich tapestry of themes such as love morality existentialism and social justice These stories while rooted in their historical context offer profound insights that resonate with today's societal issues One of the central themes of the anthology is the exploration of existential questions and the human experience Characters grapple with identity purpose and the meaning of life reflecting contemporary concerns about mental health and personal fulfillment In today's fast paced world where individuals often seek deeper meaning beyond material success these stories provide a reflective mirror Another significant theme is social justice and the critique of societal structures Many stories in the collection address issues of inequality corruption and the struggle for justice These narratives echo current global movements advocating for social change such as Black Lives Matter and climate justice activism They emphasize the timeless fight against oppression and the pursuit of a more equitable society Love in its various forms is also a recurring theme The collection examines romantic love familial bonds and friendships portraying the complexities and beauty of human relationships In an era where digital communication often overshadows genuine human connection these stories remind us of the importance of empathy understanding and emotional intimacy The anthology's relevance extends to its stylistic and narrative innovations which continue to influence modern storytelling The use of stream of consciousness unreliable narrators and fragmented narratives in these stories can be seen in contemporary literature and media underscoring the enduring legacy of French literary techniques In summary Short Stories Masterpieces Vol 1 French by J Berg Esenwein offers modern readers a profound exploration of themes that are as pertinent today as they were when the stories were first penned By addressing existentialism social justice and the multifaceted nature of love this collection not only entertains but also provokes thought and reflection making it an invaluable addition to contemporary literary discourse Composition adn Rhetoric William M. Tanner,1922 Literary Critiques Charles E. Miller,2011-12-21 The Only Wonderful Things Melissa J. Homestead,2021-03-02 A groundbreaking new look at American novelist Willa Cather's creative process What would Willa Cather's widely read and cherished novels have looked like if she had never met magazine editor and copywriter Edith Lewis In this groundbreaking book on Cather's relationship with her life partner author Melissa J Homestead counters the established portrayal of Cather as a solitary genius and reassesses the role that Lewis who has so far been rendered largely invisible by scholars played in shaping Cather's work Inviting Lewis to share the spotlight alongside this pivotal American writer Homestead argues that Lewis was not just Cather's companion but also her close literary collaborator and editor Drawing on an array of previously unpublished sources Homestead skillfully reconstructs Cather and Lewis's life together from their time in New York City to their travels in the American Southwest that formed the basis of the novels The Professor's House and Death Comes for the Archbishop After Cather's death and in the midst of the Cold War panic over homosexuality the story of her life with Edith Lewis could not be told but by telling it now Homestead offers a refreshing take on lesbian life in early twentieth century America Word Monkey Christopher Fowler,2023-08-24 A delight a glorious witty and life affirming ragbag of autobiography cultural commentary and hard won wisdom ANDREW TAYLOR author of The Shadows of London Perceptive wise and illuminating an unmissable farewell Barry Forshaw FINANCIAL TIMES The most hilarious life affirming book you'll read this year SAGA magazine Wit and wisdom that make every page turn what a fine talent the world has lost STARBURST This is the memoir Christopher Fowler always wanted to write about writing It's the story of how a young bookworm growing up in a house where there was nothing to read but knitting pamphlets and motorcycle manuals became a writer a word monkey and pursued a sort of career in popular fiction And it's a book full of brilliant insights into the pleasures and pitfalls of his profession dos and don ts for would be writers and astute observations on favourite and not so favourite novelists But woven into this hugely entertaining and inspiring reflection on a literary life is an altogether darker thread In Spring 2020 just as the world went into lockdown Chris was diagnosed with terminal cancer And yet there is nothing of the misery memoir about Word Monkey Past and present intermingle as in prose as light as air he relates with wry humour and remarkable honesty what he knows will be the final chapter in his story Deeply moving insightful and surprisingly funny this is Christopher Fowler s life affirming account of coming to terms with his own mortality A remarkable book by a remarkable writer amazingly entertaining and informative and also for obvious reasons one of the most moving SIMON MASON author of the DI Wilkins Mysteries Wonderful there is no bitterness here but a hearty celebration of how art defines a life with dark humour on the right occasions and the deliberate aim to leave a positive message his enthusiasm is infectious and sobering when you are aware that he was dying as he wrote these pages Maxim Jacobowski CRIME TIME
