Patterson local postmistress and Chantalene's surrogate aunt retains Drew Sander's legal services to declare her long missing husband legally dead. An oil company wants to lease her land for exploration and she needs to clear the title. But when Drew makes inquiries into the disappearance of Billy Ray Patterson, Billy Ray shows up back in Tetumka and moves in with Thelma. The townsfolk remember Billy Ray and find the situation amusing. Except for Thelma that is who swears to Chantalene that this man is not her missing husband. Thelma's afraid to confront him and begs Chantalene for help. Chantalene is the only one who believes her. To convince Drew and the law that the man in Thelma's house is an impostor they must find out what happened to the real Billy Ray. Chantalene follows a cold trail to New Mexico where she finds evidence that the man is indeed Billy Ray Patterson which means the man Thelma married years ago was somebody else. But who? And why? Then things turn sinister. A dark pick up runs her off the road at night and the evidence disappears. Billy Ray turns up dead. Thelma is accused of his murder. In searching out the truth Chantalene uncovers a bogus oil company, the high stakes scam of an Indian owned casino and a mafia style family who wants her silenced permanently. Anderson, 1972 The Classroom of Choice Jonathan C. Erwin, 2004-05-15 Outstanding a great guide for teachers who want to succeed with every student they teach. William Glasser: Teachers everywhere face the daily challenge of engaging students whose knowledge, skills, needs and temperaments vary greatly. How does a teacher establish a learning environment that supports the class as a whole while meeting the particular needs of individual students? Teacher Jonathan C. Erwin believes the answer lies in offering real opportunities to students rather than throwing up the obstacles inherent in traditional discipline and motivation techniques. At the heart of his approach are the five basic human needs of William Glasser's Choice Theory: survival and security, love and belonging, power through cooperation and competency, freedom and fun. By understanding and attending to these needs, teachers can customize and manage a classroom environment where students learn to motivate and monitor themselves. Drawing on theories and practices from experts in a variety of learning techniques, Erwin explores each of the five basic needs to create nearly 200 adaptable strategies for teaching and classroom management at any grade level Readers will find dozens of ideas for helping students make positive changes including Improving their work habits Connecting curriculum with individual interests Opening lines of communication with teachers and other students Boosting self worth through accomplishment and Supporting their classmates in cooperative work Erwin ties everything together in a unit guide that allows teachers to develop a classroom profile based on the needs of individual students The guide can be used with any district planning approach or curriculum For teachers seeking a win win situation in managing their classrooms The Classroom of Choice is an excellent aid in creating a learning environment in which students and teachers approach each day with energy and enthusiasm Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book The attrition of French as a foreign language Hubertus H.
