development Siggins begins with a discussion of the traditional portrait of Hanna Luder including a review and the resolution of the debate about Hanna's maiden name. Next he looks at a much less technical and more colorful controversy involving Luther's mother. He describes the social background and achievements of Hanna's family and relates details of young Martin's contact with that family during his impressionable adolescent years. Siggins pays special attention to the preaching that Luther heard in the circle of his maternal relatives. Finally he examines Luther's mature writings for traces of his mother's influence.
