Die Wende Von Der Aufklärung Zur Romantik 1760-1820 Horst Albert Glaser, György Mihály Vajda, 2000 This volume is the twelfth to date in a series of works in French or English presenting the epochs and movements of a Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages Histoire Compar e des Litt ratures de Langues Europ ennes The original intention of the editors was to publish a four volume history of European literature from 1760 1820 and the first of these volumes Des Lumi res au Romantisme Genres en Vers appeared as long ago as 1982 The volumes Genres en Prose and Th tre are still awaited In their absence the present volume Epoche im _berblick attempts a more comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the period and its historiographical problems than was initially planned providing the reader with an overview of sixty eventful years of European literary history years in which German Classicism coincided with the birth initially in Germany and England of Romanticism And at the centre of this turbulent period of European intellectual and literary history stands the French Revolution The Literary Vision of Gabrielle Roy Paula Gilbert Lewis, 1984 Women and Curiosity in Early Modern England and France Line Cottegnies, Sandrine Parageau, John J. Thompson, 2016-04-08 In Women and Curiosity in Early Modern England and France the rehabilitation of female curiosity between the sixteenth and the eighteenth centuries is thoroughly investigated for the first time in a comparative perspective that confronts two epistemological and religious traditions In the context of the early modern blooming culture of curiosity women s desire for knowledge made them both curious subjects and curious objects a double relation to curiosity that is meticulously inquired into by the authors in this volume The social literary theological and philosophical dimensions of women s persistent association with curiosity offer a rich contribution to cultural history The Romantic Art of Confession Susan M. Levin, 1998 The Romantic Art of Confession is about works specifically entitled confessions written during the Romantic period in Britain and France Reading these similarly conceived texts together illuminates uniquely the Romantic art of confession as it illuminates the written craft of self recollection and definition Men of Their Words Nigel Harkness, 2007 Whereas the centrality of femininity to nineteenth century French fiction has been the focus of widespread critical attention masculinity has until recently received little sustained treatment in either the literary or socio historical domains In this book Nigel Harkness uses the fiction of George Sand 1804 1876 the pre eminent woman writer of the period to explore questions of masculinity as they pertain to the nineteenth century French novel and to map out new approaches to the study of literary masculinity Drawing on contemporary theories of gender and narrative Harkness reveals how Sands novels repeatedly focus on a nexus of language masculinity and power in which narrative is both a vehicle for the expression of manhood and a site where masculinity is discursively performed Masculinity is thus reconfigured in Sands fiction as an identity constituted as much through words as through actions Analysis of the performances of masculinity staged in Sands novels opens onto an exploration of gendered processes of literary representation the links between masculinity and the doxa the equation of writing and power the homosocial function of acts of narration and the masculinity of authorship and authority Histoire de ma vie George Sand,1855 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911
