Revolutions Timothy Scott Johnson, 2025-01-16 Repeating Revolutions examines how activists intellectuals social scientists and historians looked to France s Revolutionary past to negotiate Algeria s struggle for decolonization from the 1930s to the 1960s The French Empire justified their claims over Algeria in part through messages of universal progress marked by the political visions tied to the French Revolution Supporters of Algerian independence confronted those historical claims by identifying the Algerian cause with the French Revolution and by highlighting the apparent contradictions between the history of 1789 and imperial rule Far right activists meanwhile saw the movement to decolonize Algeria as another manifestation of the revolutionary disorder stemming from the French Revolution Behind these analogies lay broader changes in the study of North African society and contemporary political relevance of the French Revolution The focus on analogies to the French Revolution puts different sets of actors in conversation with one another and offers a fresh take on how people's experiences and expectations changed throughout the Algerian War This book will appeal to readers interested in the intellectual history of decolonization the historiography of the French Revolution the historiography of North African studies and questions of historical comparison and conceptual change The introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

World War Cold War and the anti base campaign at Larzac whilst uncovering the largely hidden history of the numerous military bases and other installations that pepper the French countryside Mobilising nature argues that the history of war and militarisation can only be fully understood if human and environmental histories are considered in tandem Preparing for and conducting wars were only made possible through the active manipulation and mobilisation of topographies climatic conditions vegetation and animals But the military has not monopolised the mobilisation of nature Protesters against militarisation have consistently drawn on images of peaceful and productive civilian environments as the preferable alternative to destructive tanks and bombs Written in an accessible style Mobilizing nature will appeal to readers interested in modern France environmental history military geographies and histories anti military protests and environmentalism

Journal général de l'imprimerie et de la librairie ,1902 Trade in the Ancient Sahara and Beyond D. J. Mattingly,V. Leitch,C. N. Duckworth,A. Cuénod,M. Sterry,F. Cole,2017-11-30 Saharan trade has been much debated in modern times but the main focus of interest remains the medieval and early modern periods for which more abundant written sources survive The pre Islamic origins of Trans Saharan trade have been hotly contested over the years mainly due to a lack of evidence Many of the key commodities of trade are largely invisible archaeologically being either of high value like gold and ivory or organic like slaves and textiles or consumable commodities like salt However new research on the Libyan people known as the Garamantes and on their trading partners in the Sudan and Mediterranean Africa requires us to revise our views substantially In this volume experts re assess the evidence for a range of goods including beads textiles metalwork and glass and use it to paint a much more dynamic picture demonstrating that the pre Islamic Sahara was a more connected region than previously thought Maurice Thorez John Bulaitis,2018-04-30 Maurice Thorez 1900 1964 was a major figure in the history of twentieth century France and European Communism for over three decades Under his leadership the French Communist Party PCF became France s largest political party and one of the most important communist parties in the West Born in a mining village Thorez left school at the age of 12 and would go on to helm the PCF in a rapid rise that paralleled Stalin s consolidation of power in the Soviet Union After World War II he became a minister and briefly deputy prime minister before the Cold War excluded communists from political power The PCF became known as the party of Maurice Thorez as a leader cult around Thorez was created that mirrored the cult of personality around Stalin This book is based on a wealth of original source material including Thorez s diaries and notebooks John Bulaitis outlines how Thorez s political life intersected with and was shaped by key historical events At its heart the book explores the paradox of the mass communist movement in France its ability to fuse attachment to the French nation with fervent loyalty to the Soviet Union and Stalinist practices
