MODEL ANSWER (STREAMLINED) - 'What is the purpose of Source B?' (7/8 marks)

Cambridge IGCSE History

2025 - KQ2

A cartoon published in 1919

The purpose of Source B is to highlight the opinions and readiness of the League of Nations to treat the world into a more peaceful and stable world and also to highlight the potential challenges the League may face in getting their mission off the ground. The intended audience is the British public and the cartoon is attempting to build a sense of optimism. The cartoon depicts a man in a top hat, representing the League of Nations, standing next to a sign that says 'THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS'. The man is looking down at a small, dark, and somewhat ominous figure, which represents the world. The cartoon suggests that the League of Nations is ready to take on the world, but it also implies that the world is a challenging and potentially dangerous place. The cartoon is published in 1919, which is the year that the League of Nations was established. This suggests that the cartoon is a response to the public's concerns about the League's ability to maintain peace and stability in the world after the First World War.

Using your knowledge, I know that the League of Nations was created as part of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. The League had many structural and operational flaws from the very outset of its creation. A lack of representation, unbalanced and uneven structure where underrepresented democracies possessed a number of votes among other things that it would be able to carry out its job effectively. Coupled with this was the lack of leadership and leading states were from countries like America's unwillingness. Without America, some doubted whether the League had the power to regulate and enforce international conflicts and peacekeeping powers, as represented in the cartoon. The cartoonist's viewpoint is one of caution optimism. It represents the idea of hope for the future and growth with the League of Nations. However, it also shows a sense of pessimism, but also highlights the fact that the League may be a difficult one to achieve. In short, the purpose of the cartoon is to acknowledge the full goals of the League while also highlighting the fragile foundation upon which these ambitions are set. The cartoon suggests that the success of the League is uncertain and that it is about to undertake a significant challenge.

KQ2 – The League of Nations

Q4. 'How useful is Source D to a historian studying ____?' (7/8 marks)

Language matters - Writing like a Historian for source analysis

What is the examiner looking for in the how useful Q?

1. Your ability to analyse and interpret a source.
2. Your ability to make judiciously the provenance as well as the content in order to assess motive.
3. To structure your answer well with a clear focus on the question.

Remember, a source doesn't need to be truthful, accurate or impartial to be useful. Diary extracts, propaganda and political speeches may all contain manipulated versions of the truth but they are still useful in telling a historian about the opinions, values, views etc of the author.

Structure

Paragraph 1	Paragraph 2	Conclusion
1. State the ways in which the source is useful taking into account provenance and content. Give evidence to back up your points. 2. Use your own knowledge to explain why this is surprising.	1. State the ways in which the source is NOT useful taking into account provenance and content. Give evidence to back up your points. 2. Use your own knowledge to explain why this is NOT surprising.	Conclude in a few lines whether the source is largely useful or is of limited use to a historian, explain why, and in what way.
