Afreen,2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University      Politics Latin America Gavin O'Toole,2017-08-23 Politics Latin America examines the role of Latin America in the world and its importance to the study of politics with particular emphasis on the institutions and processes that exist to guarantee democracy and the forces that threaten to

Human Dignity of the Vulnerable in the Age of Rights Aniceto Masferrer,Emilio García-Sánchez,2016-08-26 This volume is devoted to exploring a subject which on the surface might appear to be just a trending topic In fact it is much more than a trend It relates to an ancient permanent issue which directly connects with people s life and basic needs the recognition and protection of individuals dignity in particular the inherent worthiness of the most vulnerable human beings The content of this book is described well enough by its title Human Dignity of the Vulnerable in the Age of Rights Certainly we do not claim that only the human dignity of vulnerable people should be recognized and protected We rather argue that since vulnerability is part of the human condition human vulnerability is not at odds with human dignity To put it simply human dignity is compatible with vulnerability A concept of human dignity which discards or denies the dignity of the vulnerable and weak is at odds with the real human condition Even those individuals who might seem more skilled and talented are fragile vulnerable and limited We need to realize that human condition is not limitless It is crucial to re discover a sense of moderation regarding ourselves a sense of reality concerning our own nature Some lines of thought take the opposite view It is sometimes argued that humankind is or is called to be powerful and that the time will come when there will be no vulnerability no fragility no limits at all Human beings will become like God or what believers might think God to be This perspective rejects human vulnerability as an intrinsic evil Those who are frail or weak who are not autonomous or not able to care for themselves do not possess dignity In this volume it is claimed that vulnerability is an inherent part of human condition and because human dignity belongs to all individuals laws are called to recognize and protect the rights of all of them particularly of those who might appear to be more vulnerable and fragile

International Anti-Corruption Norms Cecily Rose, 2015-08-13 This book traces the creation of international anti corruption norms by states and other actors through four markedly different institutions the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development the United Nations the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and the Financial Action Task Force Each of these institutions oversees an international instrument that requires states to combat corruption Yet only the United Nations oversees anti corruption norms that take the sole form of a binding multilateral treaty The OECD has by contrast fostered the development of the binding 1997 OECD Anti Bribery Convention as well as non binding recommendations and guidance associated with treaty itself In addition the revenue transparency and anti money laundering norms developed through the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative and the Financial Action Task Force respectively take the form of non binding instruments that have no relationship with multilateral treaties The creation of international anti corruption norms through non binding instruments and informal institutions has the potential to privilege the interests of powerful states in ways that raise questions about the normative legitimacy of these institutions and the instruments they produce At the same time the anti corruption instruments created under the auspices of these institutions also show that non binding instruments and informal institutions carry significant advantages The non binding instruments in the anti corruption field have demonstrated a capacity to influence domestic legal systems that is comparable to if not greater than that of binding treaties With corruption and money laundering at the forefront of political debate International Anti Corruption Norms provides timely expertise on how states and international institutions grapple with these global problems
