The essays in this volume arise from the proceedings of a conference held in 1994 to celebrate the life and work of the eminent French medievalist Jacques Le Goff. Set within thematic sections popular religion and heresy the body royalty and mystique intellectuals in medieval society and others many of the challenges raised by Le Goff are reassessed and reappraised. There is an explicit historiographical focus in a section on the reception and influence of Le Goff with particular reference to the Annales school of history with which he is strongly identified. The volume also indicates the problems which animate current research in medieval studies especially in certain areas of social and cultural history.
