Permission from the French (Classic Reprint) A. Frederic Ozanam,2019-01-23 Excerpt from History of Civilization in the Fifth Century Vol 1 of 2 Translated by Permission From the French The following version in English of an historical work which is well known and valued in France is offered to a public which has welcomed the kindred writings of the Comte de Montalembert It treats of a period which was the turning point in the history of Western civilization and although the standpoint of the author may to a certain extent influence the method of treatment and cause many in this country to take exception to details yet it is submitted that all will agree to its main argument the position of the Christian Church as the great the only civilizing force that survived the revolution which left the prostrate Empire face to face with the invading hordes This fact which is insisted on by the followers of Comte will in these days surely not be controverted by any of those whose thought is governed by Christianity About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Early Christian Latin Poets from the Fourth to the Sixth Century Otto James Kuhnmuellench,1929

Antoine Frédéric Ozanam Raymond L. Sickinger,2017-06-30 Raymond Sickinger's biography of Antoine Frédéric Ozanam is more than a chronological account of Ozanam's relatively brief but extraordinary life It is also a comprehensive study of a man who touched many lives as a teacher writer and principal founder of the Society of St Vincent de Paul Ozanam's life encompassed a particularly turbulent time in French history and he was a witness to two major political upheavals the overthrow of the Bourbon dynasty that brought Louis Philippe to power in 1830 and the end of Louis Philippe's Bourgeois Monarchy as a result of the 1848 Revolutions This book examines Ozanam's life in a number of ways First it explores the various roles he played throughout his life son sibling student member of and an inspiration for the Society of St Vincent de Paul spouse and father scholar and spokesperson for the common people Second it examines the lessons he learned in his life including the importance of friendship the meaning of solidarity and the role and purpose of suffering among many others that he shares with those who study his thought and work It concludes with an account of Ozanam's enduring legacy Antoine Frédéric Ozanam feared that he would not have a fruitful career but his legacy remains a powerful testimony to his greatness This book will interest scholars wishing to know more about Ozanam and the period in which he lived as well as a wider audience including those who are aware of or are members of the Society of St Vincent de Paul *Akbar, tr. by M.M., with notes and an introductory life of the emperor Akbar, by C.R.
