Middle English Marvels Tara Williams, 2018-01-03 This multidisciplinary volume illustrates how representations of magic in fourteenth century romances link the supernatural spectacle and morality in distinctive ways Supernatural marvels represented in vivid visual detail are foundational to the characteristic Middle English genres of romance and hagiography In Middle English Marvels Tara Williams explores the didactic and affective potential of secular representations of magic and shows how fourteenth century English writers tested the limits of that potential Drawing on works by Augustine Gervase of Tilbury Chaucer and the anonymous poets of Sir Orfeo and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight among others Williams examines how such marvels might convey moral messages within and beyond the narrative She analyzes examples from both highly canonical and more esoteric texts and examines marvels that involve magic and transformation invoke visual spectacle and invite moral reflection on how one should relate to others Within this shared framework Williams finds distinct concerns chivalry identity agency and language that intersect with the marvelous in significant ways Integrating literary and historical approaches to the study of magic this volume convincingly shows how certain fourteenth century texts eschewed the predominant trends and developed a new theory of the marvelous Williams s engaging erudite study will be of special interest to scholars of the occult the medieval and early modern eras and literature Webster's International Dictionary of the English Language Noah Webster,1894 The Examiner ,1860 The American Book Collector W. Williams,2012-10-18 This book invites us to approach friendship not as something that simply is but as something performed in and through language Roman friendship is read across a wide spectrum of Latin texts from Catullus poetry to Petronius Satyricon to the philosophical writings of Cicero and Seneca from letters exchanged by the Emperor Marcus Aurelius and his beloved teacher Fronto to those written by men and women at an outpost in northern Britain One of the most innovative features of this study is the equal attention it pays to Latin literature and to inscriptions carved in stone across the Roman Empire What emerges is a richly varied and perhaps surprising picture Hundreds of epitaphs commissioned by men and women citizens and slaves record the commemoration of friends which is of equal importance to understanding Roman friendship as Cicero s influential essay De amicitia The Refuge and the Fortress J. Seabrook,2008-11-12 In the 75th anniversary of CARA Council for Assisting Refugee Academics this book explores the experiences and achievements of
