How To Check My Admission Status At Turfloop:

Political Science in South Africa Peter Vale, Pieter Fourie, 2016-01-13 In 2013 and in 2014 respectively the South African Association of Political Studies SAAPS and Politikon the South African Journal of Political Studies celebrate their 40th anniversary Also in April 2014 South Africa celebrates twenty years since the advent of the post Apartheid democracy and the birth of the rainbow nation This book provides a timely account of the birth and evolution of South African politics over the past four decades but also of the study of Political Science and International Relations in this country Fourteen political scientists contribute chapters to this volume situating the study of politics within its global context and recounting the development of politics as a field of study at South African universities The fourteen contributions evaluate the state of the discipline and suggest conclusions that are surprising and in many instances unsettling not only with regards to what and how politics is taught but also how its study has variously gained and lost pertinence for South Africans understanding of their own polity as well as its place in the world The implications are uncomfortable and pose interesting challenges for South African scholarship pedagogy and national self reflection This book was published as a special issue of Politikon

The Law and the Prophets Daniel R. Magaziner, 2010 No nation can win a battle without faith Steve Biko wrote and as Daniel R Magaziner demonstrates in The Law and the Prophets the combination of ideological and theological exploration proved a potent force The 1970s are a decade virtually lost to South African historiography This span of years bridged the banning and exile of the country's best known antiapartheid leaders in the early 1960s and the furious protests that erupted after the Soweto uprisings of June 16 1976 Scholars thus know that something happened yet they have only recently begun to explore how and why The Law and the Prophets is an intellectual history of the resistance movement between 1968 and 1977 it follows the formation early trials and ultimate dissolution of the Black Consciousness movement It differs from previous antiapartheid historiography however in that it focuses more on ideas than on people and organizations Its singular contribution is an exploration of the theological turn that South African politics took during this time Magaziner argues that only by understanding how ideas about race faith and selfhood developed and were transformed in this period might we begin to understand the dramatic changes that took place Publisher description South African Pressclips, 1987
