If Only You People Could Follow Directions A Memoir

Lauren Gardner

If Only You People Could Follow Directions A Memoir:

If Only You People Could Follow Directions Jessica Hendry Nelson, 2015-01-13 If Only You People Could Follow Directions is a spellbinding debut by Jessica Hendry Nelson. In linked autobiographical essays, Nelson has reimagined the memoir with her thoroughly original voice, fearless writing, and hypnotic storytelling. At its center, the book is the story of three people: Nelson's mother Susan, her brother Eric, and Jessica herself. These three characters are deeply bound to one another, not just by the usual ties of blood and family, but also by a mother's drive to keep her children safe in the midst of chaos. The book begins with Nelson's childhood in the suburbs of Philadelphia and chronicles her father's addiction and death, her brother's battle with drugs and mental illness, her own efforts to find and maintain stability, and her mother's exquisite power, grief, and self-destruction in the face of such a complicated family dynamic. Each chapter in the book contends with a different relationship; friends, lovers, and strangers are all play, but at its heart, the book is about family, the ties that bind and enrich and betray us, and how one young woman sought to survive and rise above her surroundings. Bending Genre Margot

Singer, Nicole Walker, 2022-12-15 Ever since the term creative nonfiction first came into widespread use, memoirists and journalists, essayists, and fiction writers have faced off over where the border between fact and fiction lies. An early and influential book on questions of form in creative nonfiction, Bending Genre asks not where the boundaries between the genres should be drawn, but what happens when you push the line. The expanded second edition doubles the first edition with 23 new essays that broaden the exploration of hybridity, structure, unconventionality, and resistance in creative nonfiction, pushing the conversation forward in diverse and exciting ways. Written for writers and students of creative writing, this collection brings together perspectives from leading writers of creative nonfiction, including Michael Martone, Brenda Miller, Ander Monson, David Shields, Kazim Ali, and in the new edition, Catina Bacote, Ira Sukrungruang, Ingrid Horrocks, Elena Passarello, and Aviya Kushner. Each writer's innovative essay probes our notions of genre and investigates how creative nonfiction is shaped, modeling the forms of writing being discussed. Like creative nonfiction itself, Bending Genre is an exciting hybrid that breaks new ground. Features in the second edition: Updated introduction to the new edition; Expanded sections on Hybrids, Structures, and Unconventions; A new section on Resistances; 50 essays in all. The Science of Story Sean Prentiss, Nicole

Walker, 2020-01-09 Bringing together a diverse range of writers, The Science of Story is the first book to ask the question: what can contemporary brain science teach us about the art and craft of creative nonfiction writing? Drawing on the latest developments in cognitive neuroscience, the book sheds new light on some of the most important elements of the writer's craft, from perspective and truth to emotion and metaphor. The Science of Story explores such questions as: Why do humans tell stories? How do we remember and misremember our lives, and what does this mean for storytelling? What is the value of writing about trauma? How do stories make us laugh or cry, make us angry or triumphant? Contributors: Nancer Ballard, Mike Branch, Frank Bures, J. T. Bushnell, Katharine Coles, Christopher Cokinos, Alison Hawthorne Deming, David Lazar, Lawrence
