Swartz, 2020 In 1974 nearly 3 000 evangelicals from 150 nations met at the Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Amidst this cosmopolitan setting and in front of the most important white evangelical leaders of the United States members of the Latin American Theological Fraternity spoke out against the American Church Fiery speeches by Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar revealed a global weariness with what they described as an American style of coldly efficient mission wedded to myopic right leaning politics Their bold critiques electrified Christians from around the world The dramatic growth of Christianity around the world in the last century has shifted the balance of power within the faith away from the traditional strongholds of Europe and the United States to the Global South To be sure Western missionaries have carried religion abroad but the line of influence has often run the other way David R Swartz demonstrates that evangelicals in the Global South spoke frankly to American evangelicals on matters of race imperialism theology sexuality and social justice From the left they have pushed for racial egalitarianism ecumenism and more substantial development efforts From the right they have advocated for a conservative sexual ethic They forced American Christians to think more critically about their own assumptions The United States is just one node of a sprawling global network that includes Korea India Switzerland the Philippines Guatemala Uganda and Thailand Telling stories of the diverse array of evangelicals around the world Swartz shows that evangelical networks don't only extend outward but back home from the ends of the earth Ultimate Guide to Prayer Dutch Sheets, 2013-06-18 In book one of this volume Intercessory Prayer explains the nuts and bolts of prayer with wisdom gentleness and humor This book not only shows you just how vital your prayers are but inspires you and gives you courage to pray for the impossible In book two How to Pray for Lost Loved Ones teaches you how to pray for the salvation of your friends and family This book examines biblical principles for interceding for the unsaved and in the process removes your fears and gives you tangible tools you can use to take back the lost In book three Watchman Prayer teaches you all about the watchman's vital role and how with the help of the Holy Spirit your strategic prayers can draw a perimeter of protection around your loved ones Finding Calcutta Mary Poplin, 2011-01-28 Mary Poplin's chronicle of her volunteer work with the Missionaries of Charity in Calcutta provides an inside glimpse into Mother Teresa's life of service to the poor Transformed by the experience Poplin discovered how all of us can find our own places of meaningful work and service Dominion! C. movement provides an ideal case study for identifying some of the most prominent tropes within the contemporary American religious landscape Drawing on interviews television shows documentaries websites and dozens of spiritual warfare handbooks McCloud examines Third Wave practices such deliverance rituals a uniquely Protestant form of exorcism spiritual housekeeping the removal of demons from everyday objects and spiritual mapping searching for the demonic in the physical landscape Demons he shows are the central fact of life in the Third Wave imagination McCloud provides the first book length study of this influential movement highlighting the important ways that it reflects and diverts from the larger neo liberal culture from which it originates
