Reading the Dead Sea Scrolls George J.

Brooke, 2013-10-01 The Dead Sea Scrolls which have long captured the public imagination are now all available in principal editions and accessible translations This book addresses the next stage in their analysis by raising questions about how they should be read and studied The essays collected here illustrate two approaches First some essays argue that traditional methods of studying ancient texts need to be refined and broadened in the light of the Scrolls The volume thus contains studies on text criticism literary traditions lexicography historiography and theology Second the book also argues that innovative methods of study applied fruitfully in other areas now also need to be applied to the Scrolls such as studies that consider the relevance for the Scrolls of deviance theory cultural memory hypertextuality intertextuality genre theory spatial analysis and psychology Many of the examples in these studies relate to how authoritative scripture was handled and appropriated by the groups that gathered the Scrolls together in the caves at and near Qumran so some of the same texts are analyzed from several different perspectives can refocus investments on aligning quality and providing accessible care for millions more people From world renowned healthcare management experts Dr Doug Perednia Praveen Gupta Brett E Trusko Carolyn Pexton H James Harrington Jim Champy and Harry Greenspun M D How Companies Succeed in Social Business Shawn Santos,2015 This book offers a unique unprecedented insider's view of what it takes to succeed with social business Dozens of battle tested corporate practitioners have shared their intimate first hand experiences in developing launching and managing social media initiatives to improve customer care marketing product development and other key business functions Each chapter written by a different social media thought leader reveals their most intense struggles biggest wins and hardest won lessons in social business These case studies illuminate the differences between social media for social's sake and practical use cases that drive real business value How Companies Succeed in Social Business delivers specific strategies detailed tactics true best practices and actionable answers to these and other crucial questions about both strategy and tactics How have other companies been successful and where have they failed How do I champion social business initiatives to executives How do I measure ROI and build a business case How do I attract and deepen both internal and external participation How do I integrate social media with my existing technologies and processes How do I organize internally for maximum effectiveness and efficiency How will social media impact my people and our culture How can I optimize our content management processes and systems What's lurking around the corner How can I prepare for the future of social business Working with High-Risk Youth Peter Smyth,2023-12-28 This fully revised and expanded second edition focusses on high risk youth whose struggles include neglect and abuse alcohol and drug abuse the risk of being exploited mental health issues and the inability to self regulate and trust a population of youth that government child welfare services and community agencies struggle to serve adequately The focus has traditionally been on punishment consequence interventions and demanding compliance but experience and research shows that they can be better served through relationship based practice incorporating harm reduction principles resiliency and strength based approaches community collaboration and an understanding that these youth typically come from experiences of early trauma impacting their brain development and their ability to form attachments With new material on attachment trauma and brain development the perfect storm youth how to end relationships shame and societal divisions this book provides an overview of the Get Connected practice framework and philosophy which has been successfully used in Canada and New Zealand and provides strategies for engaging and working with the most disconnected challenging and troubled youth in society It will be required reading for all agency service providers community outreach workers youth workers group home workers probation officers foster parents adoptive parents service navigators counsellors addictions workers mental health workers teachers youth group leaders and youth pastors advisors in religious settings and camp counsellors The Bookseller ,1903 The Political Economy of Universal Healthcare in Africa Philip C. Aka,Hassan Wahab,Yvette M. Alex-Assensoh,2022-04-27 The global rise in pandemics most recently COVID 19 and other health challenges some of which are due to climate change have imposed significant challenges on the healthcare systems in economies around the world Thus this book deals with an issue that is very timely and relevant not just in Africa but globally It critically assesses healthcare reforms in Ghana under the Fourth Republic since 1993 Although it focuses on Ghana s National Health Insurance Scheme of 2003 the book instructively goes beyond this program The book argues that although Ghana is a bellwether of healthcare reforms in Africa its healthcare initiatives are still far from the service haven of healthcare as a human right Themes that animate the book s argument include the need to translate human rights law such as the right to health into practical policies that work for ordinary citizens Key highlights of the book include an increased accent on health as a human right emphasis on comparative analysis in healthcare studies and the formulation of a four hallmark framework embedded in economics law politics and human rights to act as a guide for assessment of healthcare reforms in Africa in particular and Ghana more specifically Using Ghana as a case study and analytical window into the world the book offers a valuable and timely resource for academics students and policymakers across the disciplines of development and healthcare economics law public policy political science sociology and African and Caribbean studies as well as in various fields in health science
