Risk Frameworks and Applications - 2nd Edition , Management Between Strategy and Finance Burkhard Schwenker,Klaus Spremann,2008-11-21 Companies decision making and planning systems find themselves in a constant tug of war between strategic and financial considerations The authors analyze these two opposing currents in business thinking dissecting their differences and identifying their best practices They also develop an approach that reconciles the two conflicting schools of thought without watering down their differences Schwenker und Spremann argue that both strategic and financial perspectives can serve as a compass in management s decision making processes Which perspective to choose depends on the phase of business The authors distinguish four phases in the company lifecycle phases in which the business must find the proper position develop grow and ultimately earn In the first two phases strategic considerations should take priority in the latter two phases financial considerations rule the day Natural Computing in Computational Finance
