He didn't add words to the heated air quivering between them. He just let the silence stretch between them, let her decide.
