Author's Address:

His death was a shock to people who were used to his family in the industry.

How Often a Family? Children will need different family members, teachers, neighbors, and friends at different times.

They will explore the question "What is the story about all families?" Children will also read poems and a folktale about different family members.

Write About Your Family

Talk with your child about people in your family. How would it be different if you had more or fewer family members? Ask your child what they might be like to be part of a classroom's family. Have around it be the same or different from your family life? Talk about this with your child.

Describe Your Family
Talk with your child about people in your family. Point to yourself and say, "I am (Mommy)." Ask your child to say the sentence about himself or herself. Together with your child, draw pictures of yourselves. Label each picture using the sentence "I am _____."

Go to the effort to listen to and learn about what they really want.
