Religion and Development in Southern and Central Africa: Vol 2 Amanze, James N., Masango, Maake, 2020-01-19 This book is a result of a joint conference which was held from 18th 22nd July 2017 under the theme Religion Citizenship and Development Southern African Perspectives The theme of the conference was adopted in order to underline the importance and significance of religion in the socio economic development of people in the world generally and in Southern and Central Africa in particular The papers in the book are divided into two volumes Volume one consists of papers which directly discuss religion and development in one form or another The second volume contains papers that discuss religion and other pertinent issues related to development The papers are grouped into sub themes for ease of reference These include Citizenship and Development Migration and Development Disability and Development Pentecostal Churches and Development and Religion and Society All in all despite a divergence of sub themes in volume two all point to issues to do with the role of religion in development in Southern and Central Africa today Vatican City Recent Economic and Political Developments Handbook - Strategic Information and Developments IBP. Inc, 2018-02-19 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Vatican City Recent Economic and Political Developments Yearbook New Millennium Woes and Livelihood Struggles in Africa Peter Thomas, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2021-05-19 One of the oldest survival pursuits undertaken by the weak and the downtrodden people across the world has been begging Going back to the ancient Christian biblical times up to the present epoch as well as across varying spatial settings in situations of trouble and tribulations parts of various communities have resorted to beggary to either overcome immediate adversities or longer term calamities Drawing on insights from two polar theoretical lenses of Social Constructionism and Social Deconstructionism and guided by a pithy study of the begging across the African continent especially by Zimbabweans this book troubles the various contours related to the subject of begging Inter alia the book considers the concept of begging the causes of the prevalence of begging across the world and particularly among Zimbabweans the challenges and benefits associated with the pursuit of alms the impact of begging in foreign lands as well as some of the strategies that beggars employ to maximize their collections and or profits What can be discerned from the book is that for many begging is one of the last resort undertakings with low pickings However from a utilitarian perspective begging has helped to sustain the impoverished livelihoods of Zimbabweans both inside and outside the borders of the country since the advent of a debilitating crisis experienced from the turn of the new millennium On the whole this book seeks to provoke further researches on an important socio economic area that affects many African communities but has so far been scantily researched The book is handy for students and practitioners in economic history African studies economics risk and disaster management social anthropology political science and development studies Italy Company Law and Regulations Handbook - Strategic Information and Basic Regulations IBP, Inc., 2016-11-06 Italy Company Laws and Regulations Handbook Strategic Information and Basic Laws Teaching African History in Schools

,2020-11-04 Emerging from the pioneering work of the African Association for History Education AHE Afrika Teaching African History in Schools offers an original Africa centred contribution to international history education research Edited by AHE Afrika s founders and directors the volume thus addresses a notable gap in this field by showcasing otherwise marginalised scholarship from and about Africa Teaching African History in Schools constitutes a unique collection of nine empirical studies interrogating curriculum and textbook contents and teachers and learners voices and experiences as they relate to teaching and learning African history across the continent and beyond Case studies include South Africa Kenya Rwanda Zimbabwe Malawi Cameroon and Tanzania as well as the UK and Canada Contributors are Denise Bentreovato Carol Bertram Jean Leonard Buhigiro Annie Fatsereni Chiponda Raymond Nkwenti Fru Marshall Tamuka Maposa Abdul Mohamud Sabrina Moisan Reville Nussey Nancy Rushohora Johan Wassermann and Robin Whitburn Vatican City (Holy See): Doing Business, Investing in Vatican City Guide Volume 1 Strategic, Practical Information, Regulations, Contacts IBP, Inc.,2015-06 Vatican City Holy See Doing Business and Investing in Guide Volume 1 Strategic Practical Information Regulations Contacts Transformative Sustainable Development Kei Otsuki,2014-12-05 Recent debates about sustainable development have shifted their focus from fixing environmental problems in a technocratic and economic way to more fundamental changes in social political processes and relations In this context participation is a genuinely transformative approach to sustainable development yet the process by which participation leads to transformation is not sufficiently understood This book considers how the act of participating in sustainable development projects can bring about social transformation that is considered to be fair and just by the participants and non participants in a broader societal context Drawing on ideas from social theory and applied anthropology the book proposes a reflexivity based framework to analyse participation as a type of social action underpinned by primary experience Development projects have a transformative effect when participants are given the opportunity to reflect on their experience share the reflection with others and open new space for collective deliberation and change The book applies this framework to assess community based participatory projects in the Amazon African slums and rural settlements and disaster stricken areas in Japan It also outlines potential institutions of governance to institutionalize the change by referring to current food governance drawing out lessons with international relevance This book will be of interest to students of sustainable development environmental policy and development studies as well as practitioners and policy makers in these fields The Palgrave Handbook of History and Social Studies Education Christopher W. Berg,Theodore M. Christou,2020-04-03 This Handbook presents an international collection of essays examining history education past and present Framing recent curriculum reforms in Canada and in the United States in light of a century long debate between the relationship between theory and practice this collection contextualizes the debate by exploring the evolution of history and social studies education within their state or national contexts With contributions ranging from Canada Finland New Zealand Sweden the Netherlands the Republic of South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States chapters illuminate the ways in which curriculum theorists and academic researchers are working with curriculum developers and educators to translate and refine notions of historical thinking or inquiry as well as pedagogical practice

Why History Education? Joanna Wojdon, 2023-03-15 The 2022 issue of JHEC is focused on the topic Why History Education addressing the sense of history education in contemporary world where it has to assert itself in the field of tension of power economy and society and to engage in the dialogue with the growing field of public history Perspectives from Austria Germany Israel Poland South Africa Ukraine and Zimbabwe are included The highlight of the Varia section is the article on Planungsmatrix where Alois Ecker presents his innovative tool for designing teaching modules that skillfully combine first and second order historical concepts in the course of dialogical interaction between educator and students

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-10 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966-1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

Paramilitary Groups and the State under Globalization Jasmin Hristov, Jeb Sprague, Aaron Tauss, 2021-12-30 This book examines the phenomenon of paramilitarism across Latin America and the Caribbean Eastern Europe Africa and Asia offering a nuanced perspective while identifying key patterns in the way paramilitary violence is implicated in processes of capital accumulation state building and the reproduction of social power Paramilitary violence a key modality of coercion in the era of globalization has been pursued by states and dominant classes in the Global South to reproduce or extend their power over subaltern groups Paramilitary groups are responsible for atrocities including extrajudicial executions disappearances torture rape and forced displacement The book integrates empirically rich investigations into an emergent theory of political violence capturing the relationship between parastatal armed actors capital and the state The analysis sheds light on globally relevant phenomena such as the end of the Cold War the shifting role of US hegemony and evolving nature of the nation state The book is suitable for academics graduate and upper year undergraduate students and policy makers in development human rights and violence prevention Given its interdisciplinary subject it appeals to scholars from a wide range of disciplines including political science sociology political anthropology development peace and conflict security and terrorism international relations and global studies

Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure, 2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author's excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology

Sustainability in Developing Countries Susan Osireditse Keitumetse, Luc Hens, David Norris, 2020-10-08 This book illustrates an alternative approach to state of sustainability reporting by presenting cross sectoral and multi disciplinary discussions on sustainability issues in the context of a developing country Botswana The book volume illustrates how academic publishing can supplement African governments existing forms of reporting on sustainability by providing on ground detailed descriptions and experiences relating to achievement of the various sustainable development goals SDGs In addition this process involves increases and enhances diversity of stakeholders that report on sustainability Furthermore the approach resonates with the UN s recommendation to build local strategies for implementation of the 2030 agenda for sustainable development Conventional reporting on sustainability by most African countries is an exercise that is customarily the preserve of designated government ministries While this form of reporting provides a consistent platform for tracking sustainable development goals it can also benefit from juxtaposition with in depth descriptions and experiences provided by academic publishing Academia through publishing provides a framework for on ground situation analysis as well as in depth descriptions of African country s grass root experiences thus allowing for temporal tracking of sustainable development milestones As this volume illustrates experiences from the various contributors on this volume highlight different points of departure towards achieving the 2030 agenda Topics covered include biodiversity water management world heritage environment education tourism gender institutional approaches to achievement of SDGs as well as contribution of non governmental organisations NGO s amongst others

COVID-19 Lockdowns and the Urban Poor in Harare, Zimbabwe Johannes Itai Bhanye, Fortune Mangara, Abraham R. Matamanda, Lameck Kachena, 2023-12-09 This book focuses on the socio economic impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic and associated lockdowns on the welfare of the urban poor in the city of Harare Zimbabwe The authors look through the lenses of the urban health penalty the right to the city complexity theory and distributive justice theory These four theories help situate the COVID 19 pandemic and its impacts on the urban poor in the theoretical foundations that raise issues of how the poor are affected by disease health pandemics due to their living conditions Uniquely the authors use remote ethnography tools such as rich texts video diaries and photo uploads to provide evidence based stories of how COVID 19 mobility restrictions have affected poor urbanites in Harare The book concludes that the COVID 19 pandemic mandatory lockdowns have deepened social and spatial inequality among the urban poor threatening their right to the city The socio economic impacts can upsurge poverty increase unemployment and the risks of hunger and food insecurity reinforce existing inequalities and break social harmony in the cities even past the COVID 19 pandemic period These socioeconomic impacts must be considered to make just cities for all from a right to the city perspective The authors recommend that mandatory COVID 19 lockdowns should not only be treated as a law and order operation but as a medical intervention to stem the spread of the virus backed by measures to safeguard the livelihoods of the urban poor while also protecting the economy This means governments should provide social safety nets to informal sector operators whose income generating activities are affected the most during the time of emergencies like COVID 19 Planners and policymakers should re envision pandemic resilient cities that are just equitable resilient and sustainable Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

Carbon Conflicts and Forest Landscapes in Africa Melissa Leach, Ian Scoones, 2015-06-05 Amidst the pressing challenges of global climate change the last decade has seen a wave of forest carbon projects across the world designed to conserve and enhance forest carbon stocks in order to reduce carbon emissions from deforestation and offset emissions elsewhere Exploring a set of new empirical case studies Carbon Conflicts and Forest Landscapes in Africa examines how these projects are unfolding their effects and who is gaining and losing Situating forest carbon approaches as part of more general moves to address environmental problems by attaching market values to nature and ecosystems it examines how new projects interact with forest landscapes and their longer histories of intervention The book asks what difference does carbon make What political and ecological dynamics are unleashed by these new commodified marketized approaches and how are local forest users experiencing and responding to them The book's case studies cover a wide range of African ecologies project types and national political economic contexts By examining these cases in a comparative framework and within an understanding of the national regional and global institutional arrangements shaping forest carbon commoditisation the book provides a rich and compelling account of how and why carbon conflicts are emerging and how they might be avoided in future This book will be of interest to students of development studies environmental sciences geography economics development studies and anthropology as well as practitioners and policy makers

Reimagining God and Resacralisation Alexa Blonner, 2019-05-14 This book shows that widespread resacralisation has been taking place which is producing new ways of perceiving God and the divine The last century has seen unmistakable changes in religious practices and the concept of spirituality right across the world There was a broad expectation for much of the twentieth century that religious worldviews would eventually succumb to the challenge of secularist materialism but this process of secularisation has yet to occur as predicted The book begins by contrasting theories of secularisation and resacralisation Throughout the book conceptual threads or new religious themes related to this resacralisation are discussed in terms of three main categories reimagining God's nature substance and location reimagining human value and purpose and reimagining modes of redemption Finally the book considers how these threads are moving in various different directions and what the religious future might hold This is a bold examination of contemporary spirituality that will appeal to academics and scholars of religious studies new religious movements and the sociology of religion Go Back to Where You Came From Sasha Polakow-Suransky,2017-10-16 From Europe to the United States and beyond opportunistic politicians have exploited economic crisis terrorist attacks and an influx of refugees to bring hateful and reactionary views from the margins of political discourse into the corridors of power This climate has already helped propel Donald Trump to the White House pushed Britain out of the European Union and put Marine Le Pen within striking distance of the French presidency Sasha Polakow Suransky s on the ground reportage and interviews with the rising stars of the new right tell the story of how we got here tracing the global rise of anti immigration politics and the ruthlessly effective rebranding of Europe s new far right as defenders of Western liberal values Go Back to Where You Came From is an indispensable account of why xenophobia went mainstream in countries known historically as defenders of human rights and models of tolerance Religion and Development in Africa Ezra Chitando,Masiwa Ragies Gunda ,Lovemore Togarasei,2020-06-09 What is development Who defines that one community country is developed while another community country is under developed What is the relationship between religion and development Does religion contribute to development or underdevelopment in Africa These and related questions elicit quite charged reactions in African studies development studies political science and related fields Africa s own history including the memory of marginalisation slavery and exploitation by global powers ensures that virtually every discussion on development is characterised by a lot of emotions and conflicting views In this volume scholars from various African countries and many different religions and denominations contribute to this debate The Bible and Violence in Africa Johannes Hunter,Joachim Kügler,2016-06-07
