The Place of the Child Writer is an important contribution to the fast growing and rapidly evolving field of literary juvenilia studies This collection of essays by fifteen scholars is the first in this area to be published in the past decade To reflect recent developments Home and Away both theorises the current state of this richly interdisciplinary academic field and exemplifies juvenilia studies in action An authoritative review of the origins and future of literary juvenilia studies is followed by a collection of essays on individual authors Wide ranging in literary periods covered geographical regions represented and methodological approaches employed the collection is organized around the basic tenet that the familiar world of home and the as yet untravelled territory of adulthood are both important to the imaginations of juvenile authors The relationships and values of the parental home the topography of the home place the literature and lives that first fired their imaginations as children find expression in young writers works So too do the unfamiliar or extra familiar connections lifestyles landscapes and literature that the child writer anticipates imagines or invents whether as a means of temporary escape while still at home or as a process of preparing for adulthood and artistic maturity
