Power in a Complex Global System Louis W. Pauly, Bruce W. Jentleson, 2014-05-09 Can twenty first century global challenges be met through the limited adaptation of existing political institutions and prevailing systemic norms or is a more fundamental reconstitution of governing authority unavoidable Are the stresses evident in domestic social compacts capable of undermining the fundamental policy capacity of contemporary governments This book inspired by the work of the distinguished scholar Peter J Katzenstein examines these important and pressing questions In a period of complex political transition the authors combine original research and intensive dialogue to build on Katzenstein s innovative insights They highlight his seminal work on variations in domestic structures on the role of ideologies of social partnership on the regionally differentiated foundations of political legitimation on diverse conceptions of civilization and on the idea and practice of power in a tenuous American imperium Together the chapters map the complex terrain upon which legitimate political authority and effective policy capacity will have to be reconstituted to address twenty first century global regional and state level challenges The book will be of great interest to students and scholars in international organization global governance foreign policy analysis and comparative politics

Critical ELT Practices in Asia Kiwan Sung, Rod Pederson, 2012-09-13 This is the first and long awaited work on critical approaches to teaching English for the purposes of democracy and social justice that challenges the current views of ELT such as English being merely a tool for communication or the acquisition of basic skills or high test scores for advancement in education and the marketplace A timely work and a fresh look at critical approaches to ELT in Asia An invaluable work that simultaneously problematizes current ELT practices while introducing new possibilities for critical practices in localized contexts in Asia An important work that shines a light on how the forces of globalization not only dictate the spread of English as an international language but how these forces also dictate what is taught and how An informative view on how ELT practices are being re envisioned by critical educators in Asia This groundbreaking volume compiling critical perspectives of English language teaching in China Hong Kong Indonesia Korea and Sri Lanka confronts colonial legacies observed in educational practices and policies that perpetuate a divide between the privileged and the underprivileged The critical reflections scrutinize the nature of English as a commodified gatekeeper and simultaneously provide alternative visions for language education Ryuko Kubota Professor The university of British Columbia

Ethnicity in China: A Critical Introduction Xiaowei Zang, 2015-06-05 On the global stage China is often seen to be a homogenous nation when in fact it is a diverse multi ethnic society with 55 minority nationality groups recognized by the government Scattered across the vast landmass ethnic minorities in China occupy a precarious place in the state where the Confucian concept of cultural community plays down ethnicity and encourages integration of minority nationalities into the majority Han Chinese society This insightful book reveals the ethnic diversity underlying the People s

Republic of China and examines how ethnicity intersects with social and political issues through key themes such as ethnic inequality the preservation and contribution of the rich traditions and customs of minority cultures and the autonomy of regions such as Tibet and Xinjiang The author investigates the important role of the state and Beijing's assimilation stance to show how its nationality policy driven by Confucian assimilation ideology has dictated China's own minority rights regime and influenced its foreign policy towards international minority rights This book by a distinguished scholar of ethnicity in China will be essential reading for students and scholars of race and ethnic relations nationalism and Chinese culture and society
