When Heidi Wyder arrived in Varanasi, India, and discovered that even a beginner might follow in the footsteps of the saints, masters, and yogis, she appealed to her new yoga teacher, a man known as "Guruji," to teach her Kriya Yoga. "If I give you Kriya," he pronounced, "I am giving you everything." What she learned has indeed transformed her life in surprising and stirring ways. Kriya Yoga: Four Spiritual Masters and a Beginner chronicles her personal progress, sharing her experiences with spiritual seekers everywhere.

In this enlightening and easy-to-read guide to the original Kriya Yoga, Wyder offers unprecedented insight into this powerful scientific meditation technique along with never-before-told life stories of the spiritual masters in the family lineage of Lahiri Mahasaya.

Anyone who seeks supreme bliss, or is intrigued by self-realization, meditation, healing, and secrets behind miracles such as levitation, will find fascinating reflections in this compelling narrative.

"What a wonderful book Kriya Yoga is for the beginner's mind to go deeper into understanding the spiritual practice of Kriya. Through this authorized introduction, Heidi Wyder highlights the genius of the original Kriya meditation to bring a new understanding of the profound and meaningful depths possible in creative human experience."
