One-on-One Language Teaching and Learning T. Bleistein, M. Lewis, 2014-11-25 With only one learner it is possible for the teacher to give serious attention to principles of second language acquisition such as motivation error treatment and learner autonomy which are more difficult to address in classroom learning. This book combines theory with practical suggestions making it invaluable for language tutors.

Longman Academic Reading Elizabeth Bottcher, 2016-09-16 The Longman Academic Reading Series is a five level series that prepares English language learners for academic work. High interest readings cover a variety of subjects including art history nutrition American literature and forensics. The series takes a holistic approach to the skills and strategies necessary for effective reading vocabulary building note taking and critical thinking. By encouraging students to discuss and write about the ideas covered in the readings the series helps them become better speakers and writers of English. Highlights: Rigorous sophisticated and comprehensive readings are based on academic sources each carefully designed to provide different and intriguing perspectives on a theme. Readings come from a variety of sources and genres: textbooks newspapers magazines online articles and are written by experts in widely different fields. A corpus informed approach to vocabulary helps students build vocabulary and acquire skills to become more confident in preparing for academic work. New Essential Online Resources include reading comprehension activities reading faster activities teacher's manual and assessments and audio of the readings. Level 5 only has audio of the readings. Academic Reading Kathleen T. McWhorter, 1998 Academic Reading Third Edition provides a complete review of textbook reading strategies and vocabulary skills and teaches students how to adapt and apply those skills to the unique features and requirements of the major academic disciplines. Scripture and Theology Tomas Bokedal,Ludger Jansen,Michael Borowski,2023-08-21 The academic disciplines of Biblical Studies and Systematic Theology were long closely linked to one another However in the modern period they became gradually separated which led to increasing subject specialization but also to a lamentable lacuna within the various branches of Divinity As the lack of dialogue between Biblical Studies and the various theological disciplines increased a minority group of scholars in the past few decades reacted and sought to re establish the time honoured bonds between the disciplines The present volume is part of this intellectual response with contributions from scholars of various professional and denominational backgrounds Together the book s 25 chapters seek to reinvigorate the crucial cross disciplinary dialogue involving biblical narrative historical systematic theological and philosophic theological perspectives The book opens the horizon to contemporary research and fills a lamentable research gap with a number of fresh contributions from scholars in the respective sub disciplines      Working with Academic Literacies Theresa Lillis,Kathy Harrington,2015-11-04 The editors and contributors to this collection explore what it means to adopt an academic literacies approach in policy and pedagogy Transformative practice is illustrated through case studies and critical commentaries from teacher researchers working in a range of higher education contexts from undergraduate to postgraduate levels across disciplines and spanning geopolitical regions including Australia Brazil Canada Catalu a Finland France Ireland Portugal South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States      IELTS Collected Papers 2 Lynda B. Taylor, Lynda Taylor, Cyril J. Weir, 2012-02-23 This volume reports research that informs the development of reading and listening assessment in IELTS This volume brings together a set of eight IELTS related research studies four on reading and four on listening conducted between 2005 and 2010 Findings from these studies provide valuable evidence on the validity reliability impact and practicality of the IELTS test they are also instrumental in highlighting aspects needing attention and thus directly inform the continuing evolution of the IELTS reading and listening tests The volume reviews and comments on the specific contribution of each study to the ongoing process of IELTS reading and listening test design and development      Reading the Psalms Theologically David M. The Taxonomy of Metacognition Pina Tarricone,2011-02-28 Metacognition is a complex construct which is fundamental to learning Its complex fuzzy and multifaceted nature has often led to its colloquial application in research resulting in studies that fail to identify its theoretical foundation or elements In response to this the research community continues to call for a comprehensive understanding of the construct of metacognition This book is a response to this call for clarity Pina Tarricone provides a theoretical study of the construct of metacognition in terms of psychological theory The first part of the book analyses the relationship between reflection and metacognition and the second part goes on to analyse the construct of metamemory as the foundation of metacognition The third and final part of the book analyses the construct of metacognition to present the final conceptual framework of metacognition and the taxonomy of metacognition This framework builds a picture and a nexus of the construct through visual links to the related concepts that contribute to what is known as metacognition The Taxonomy of Metacognition provides a comprehensive representation and categorisation of all of the terms concepts categories supercategories subcategories and elements of metacognition It clarifies the construct so that researchers and teachers can develop a better understanding of it This important and broad ranging contribution can be applied to many related areas by researchers psychologists teachers and any profession interested in psychological learning processes Teaching Reading in the Content Areas Vicki Urquhart,Dana Frazee,2012-07-03 History teachers aren t expected to teach science math teachers aren t expected to teach social studies so why are all teachers responsible for teaching reading The answer is simple An emphasis on reading and literacy skills in the content areas has an exponential effect on learning in every discipline This completely revised third edition of the best selling Teaching Reading in the Content Areas seeks to help educators understand how to teach reading in their respective disciplines choose the best reading strategies from the vast array available and positively impact student learning Throughout it draws from new research on the impact of new technologies the population boom of English language learners and the influence of the Common Core State Standards Given the complexities of the reading process teachers deserve and this book provides clear research based answers to overarching questions about teaching reading in the content areas What specific skills do students need to read effectively in each content area Which reading strategies are most appropriate to help students become more effective readers and independent learners What type of learning environment promotes effective reading and learning By focusing on the differences in how content area experts read and reason teachers can be better prepared to help their students understand that the ways they read in biology are different from the ways they read in English history or mathematics To read successfully in different content areas students must develop discipline specific skills and strategies along with knowledge of that discipline With that in mind this book also includes 40 strategies designed to help students in every grade level and across the content areas develop their vocabularies comprehend informational and narrative texts and engage in meaningful discussions of what they read
