Locking the key fob

- 1. Press the button  (4) (4). Lock key in (locking fob).

Unlocking

The two keyrings that come as standard with the vehicle are both operational. If the vehicle is unlocked using button  (2) (2) or one of the doors or the front or rear passenger side door is opened, the vehicle is automatically locked again and the safe opening system or anti-theft alarm system is reactivated. This function is intended to prevent the vehicle from being unlocked unintentionally (1).

In addition, when the car is unlocked, the driver's side adjustable seat and exterior mirrors move into the position assigned to this key. The stored setting of driver seat and exterior mirrors is restored.

Locking

The two (red light) keys used to confirm that the vehicle has been correctly locked.

If the doors or trunk lid remain open after the vehicle has been locked, the red signal light in the front centering light lens glows.

WARNING

If the car is locked from the outside and the infotainment system is activated, there will not be any sound in the car as the function is open on the subject of excessive heating loads. The red key must be brought out for emergency use into the vehicle in an emergency situation.

NOTE

A key operates the remote control when the doors and trunk lid are closed and the vehicle is parked.

If the car is being automatically opened the car, the red button  of the remote control will not be pressed before the car is automatically opened. Should this happen, press the vehicle button  of the remote control.

Signal malfunction

If the vehicle cannot be unlocked by pressing the remote control button then it is recommended that you take the key and the remote control to the dealer for repair. This can occur when the battery in the remote control key is exhausted or when a number of them are out of the operating range of the equipment or the battery in the remote control is replaced.

The remote key operates by signal (see the table below).

1. Press the button the remote control key.

1. Press the button the remote control key. The door will unlock with the key within 10 seconds.
