Matric Rewrite 2015:

COVID-19: Paving the Way for a More Sustainable World Walter Leal Filho, 2021-05-25 This book gathers and disseminates opinions viewpoints studies forecasts and practical projects which illustrate the various pathways sustainability research and practice may follow in the future as the world recovers from the COVID 19 pandemic and prepares itself to the possibilities of having to cope with similar crisis a product of the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP <https://www.haw-hamburg.de/en/ftz/nk/programmes/iusdrp.html> and the European School of Sustainability Science and Research ESSSR <https://esssr.eu> The COVID 19 pandemic has led to severe human suffering and to substantial damages to economies around the globe affecting both rich countries and developing ones The aftermath of the epidemic is also expected to be felt for sometime This will also include a wide range of impacts in the ways sustainable development is perceived and how the principles of sustainability are practised There is now a pressing need to generate new literature on the connections between COVID 19 and sustainability This is so for two main reasons Firstly the world crisis triggered by COVID 19 has severely damaged the world economy worsening poverty causing hardships and endangering livelihoods Together these impacts may negatively influence the implementation of sustainable development as a whole and of the UN Sustainable Development Goals in particular These potential and expected impacts need to be better understood and quantified hence providing a support basis for future recovery efforts Secondly the shutdown caused by COVID 19 has also been having a severe impact on teaching and research especially but not only on matters related to sustainability This may also open new opportunities e.g. less travel more Internet based learning which should be explored further especially in the case of future pandemics a scenario which cannot be excluded The book meets these perceived needs Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa. National Youth Development Agency, 2016 Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Pakistan Aparna Pande, 2017-08-23 With a population of 190 million Pakistan is strategically located at the crossroads of the Middle East Central and South Asia and has the second largest Muslim population in the world The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Pakistan provides an in depth and comprehensive coverage of issues from identity and the creation of Pakistan in 1947 to its external relations as well as its domestic social economic and political issues and challenges The Handbook is divided into the following sections Economy and development External relations and security Foundations and identity Islam and Islamization Military and jihad Politics and institutions Social issues The Handbook explains the reasons why Pakistan is so often at the forefront of our daily news intake with a focus on religious and political factors It asks questions regarding the institutions and political parties which govern Pakistan and provides an insight into the relationships which the country has forged since its creation culminating in a discussion of the state s involvement in conflict Covering a range of topics this Handbook offers a wide range of perspectives on Pakistan Bringing together a group of leading international scholars on Pakistan the Handbook is a cutting edge and interdisciplinary resource for those interested in studying Pakistani politics economics culture and society and South Asian Studies

On the Blind Side Lynda Smiley, 2015-02-17 On the blind side is an account of the rehabilitation of some of the men and women Lynda has trained when they lost their sight either through accident or illness or on the battlefield They are all heroes Theirs are stories of bravery and courage of hope and fulfillment Arriving at the Enid Whitaker Rehabilitation for the Blind at a crisis point in their lives often suicidal always downcast they departed on completion of their course full of new ambition to conquer the world Running in tandem with the stories of the rehabilitees are brief vignettes from Lyndas own history glimpses into how she came to take up the work she did The contents include chapters such as In the beginning Lyndas own background for doing the work Clash of the Titans a case history of one of the students Pancakes and snow an account of optacon teaching Too much sugar about Diabetes Mellitus The book should appeal to the general reader to those facing impending loss of sight and those who are already blind as well as to professionals in the field of blindness It is an essentially human story of hope and courage which Lynda had the privilege to witness many many times in the course of her career as the first locally trained Mobility Instructress in South Africa Lynda was employed by the South African National Council for the Blind and later by St Dunstons for War Blinded Veterans Today she freelances in the community

Soil Physics with Python Marco Bittelli, Gaylon S. Campbell, Fausto Tomei, 2015-05-14 This innovative study presents concepts and problems in soil physics and provides solutions using original computer programs It provides a close examination of physical environments of soil including an analysis of the movement of heat water and gases The authors employ the programming language Python which is now widely used for numerical problem solving in the sciences In contrast to the majority of the literature on soil physics this text focuses on solving not deriving differential equations for transport Using numerical procedures to solve differential equations allows the solution of quite difficult problems with fairly simple mathematical tools Numerical methods convert differential into algebraic equations which can be solved using conventional methods of linear algebra Each chapter introduces a soil physics concept and proceeds to develop computer programs to solve the equations and illustrate the points made in the discussion Problems at the end of each chapter help the reader practise using the concepts introduced The text is suitable for advanced undergraduates graduates and researchers of soil physics It employs an open source philosophy where computer code is presented explained and discussed and provides the reader with a full understanding of the solutions Once mastered the code can be adapted and expanded for the user's own models fostering further developments The Python tools provide a simple syntax Object Oriented Programming techniques powerful mathematical and numerical tools and a user friendly environment

Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts Jenny Parkes, 2015-03-27 This book is concerned with understanding the complex ways in which gender violence and poverty impact on young people's lives and the potential for education to challenge violence Although there has been a recent expansion of research on gender violence and schooling the field of research that brings together thinking on gender violence poverty and education is in its infancy This book sets out to establish this new field by offering innovative research insights into the nature of violence affecting children and young people the sources of violence including the relationship with poverty and inequality the effects of violence on young subjectivities and the educational challenge of how to counter violence Authors address three interrelated aims in their chapters to identify theoretical and methodological framings for understanding the relationship between gender violence poverty and education to demonstrate how young people living in varying contexts of poverty in the Global South learn about engage in respond to and resist gender violence to investigate how institutions including schools families communities governments international and non governmental organisations and the media constrain or expand possibilities to challenge gender violence in the Global South Describing a range of innovative research projects the chapters display what scholarly work can offer to help meet the educational challenge and to find ways to help young people and those around them to understand resist and rupture the many faces of violence Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts will appeal to an international audience of postgraduate students academics and researchers in the fields of international and comparative education gender and women's studies teacher education poverty development and conflict studies African and Asian studies and related disciplines It will also be of interest to professionals in NGOs and other organisations and policy makers keen to develop research informed practice Winner of the 2016 Jackie Kirk Outstanding Book Award
