(i) The teachings of this Hadith, it could be said, which are the hallmarks of being a Muslim, are belief in God and the Last Day. Candidates could then stress upon the need to show care and generosity to others around them and they could give examples of a Muslim speaking kindly to others or not taking sides in disputes but being fair and seeing guests to the door etc. References to these or similar examples and even to other Hadiths will show that Islam promotes good will towards all humankind.

(ii) It could be said that the distinctive quality of Islam is modesty and that it is modesty that leads to good conduct and avoids wrong doings as it embraces the virtues of humility and charity. It could be further added that it helps develop a person's character and helps them to act to their true capabilities. A clear understanding from the candidate of what modesty is will help them get to the top level.

(iii) The primary teaching of this Hadith is that a Muslim must never allow evil to take place and must endeavour to use every means available to him to stop it from happening. If he is unable to prevent it, then at the very least he must always condemn it.

(iv) Reading the Qur'an and understanding its teaching is very important for Muslims as that is the key to living a righteous life. Just as the Bedouins depended on their camels for their survival in the time of the Prophet (pbuh) a Muslim needs to hold on to the Qur'an and its teachings to attain the pleasure of their Lord.

(b) (i) Muslims should be generous and kind to people around them could be given in the answer whilst better answers could discuss the meaning and importance of generosity with reference to other Hadiths like 'None of you believe...' Answers could also reflect upon how Muslims should hold others in high regard irrespective of their faith or position in life. Practical examples like refraining from idle talk etc. could be given in support of the answer.

(ii) When a Muslim acts modestly he will always think of others before himself and that in turn eliminates social problems and earns the individual the respect of others. Lowering ones gaze in the
