EssaySnark's Strategies for the 2013-'14 MBA Application for Chicago Booth Essay Snark, 2013-07-06. Are the Booth essays like Harvard's? Or like NYU's? Or like no other school on the planet? For years Chicago Booth has been asking applicants the same question that Harvard has adopted this year. While the questions may seem similar, your approach needs to be a bit different between these two schools. Booth has had a career goals question but now they don't. What impact should that have on your application strategy? If they didn't explicitly ask you to discuss your goals, is that something that still belongs in your Booth pitch? This SnarkStrategies Guide provides essential tips and insights into the 2013-14 MBA application for Chicago Booth, including: How competitive are they? Does a reapplicant have a chance? What should I focus my two short essays on? Is it better to do a presentation or write an essay for the last question? EssaySnark never tells you what to write in your essays. You need to come up with the right stories and the right presentation on your own. What we will do is flesh out the guidelines that Booth has already provided and repeat some wisdom about the application that we've heard them offer to candidates as a way to help you structure your thinking. You'll get advice on what makes for a good story and what maybe should be avoided, and we'll discuss a balance of topics that you can aim for. Application for NYU Stern School of Business Essay Snark, 2014-06-08 This guide for admission to NYU Stern has been revised for the 2014 application season. So you want to go to a great New York business school for your MBA. Then you probably want to try for NY Stern. Here are a few great things about this school: 1. Stern has exceptional resources and support for career changers through its full time MBA. 2. Stern has a part time MBA program, the only one at a major business school in the Northeast. Stern is centrally located downtown NYC in Greenwich Village. 3. Stern has a deliberate focus on teamwork and collaboration that permeates every aspect of the Stern culture, from the classroom to the clubs. All this plus, of course, a top notch graduate business education adds up to a distinctive school in one of the greatest cities on Earth. And one with very competitive admissions. If you're serious about NYU, you need to take a fresh approach to their essays. With this SnarkStrategies Guide for the NYU Stern School of Business, revised for the 2014 MBA application, EssaySnark can show you how. We cover important considerations for the current set of essay questions and discuss when to apply among NYU's four application rounds. We touch on the Stern waitlist and their rolling admissions. We also go into details like what GMAT scores and GPAs are considered competitive at this very selective school. NYU Stern is not an alternative to Columbia for a New York MBA; it's a fantastic school in its own right and they are looking for great candidates.
