Bauer, Alexandra Böhm, Micha Gerrit Philipp Edlich, Greta Gaard, Björn Hayer, Andreas Hübner, Michaela Keck, Maria Moss, Jobst Paul, Mieke Roscher, Pamela Steen, Nils Steffensen, 2022-06-14 In light of the dramatic growth and rapid institutionalization of human animal studies in recent years it is somewhat surprising that only a small number of

publications have proposed practical and theoretical approaches to teaching in this inter and transdisciplinary field. Featuring eleven original pedagogical interventions from the social sciences and the humanities as well as an epilogue from ecofeminist critic Greta Gaard, the present volume addresses this gap and responds to the demand by both educators and students for pedagogies appropriate for dealing with environmental crises. The theoretical and practical contributions collected here describe new ways of teaching human animal studies in different educational settings and institutional contexts, suggesting how learners equipped with key concepts such as agency or relationality can develop empathy and ethical regard for the more-than-human world and especially nonhuman animals. As the contributors to this volume show, these cognitive and affective goals can be achieved in many curricula in secondary and tertiary education. By providing learners with the tools to challenge human exceptionalism in its various guises and related patterns of domination and exploitation in and outside the classroom, these interventions also contribute to a much-needed transformation not only of today's educational systems but of society as a whole. This volume is an invitation to beginners and experienced instructors alike: an invitation to reconsider how we teach human animal studies and how we could and should prepare learners for an uncertain future in ideally a more egalitarian and just multispecies world. With contributions by Roman Bartosch, Liza B. Bauer, Alexandra B. H. Michä, Gerrit Philipp Edlich, Greta Gaard, Björn Hayer, Andreas H. B. Michaela, Keck Maria, Moss, Jobst Paul, Mieke Roscher, Pamela Steen, and Nils Steffensen. Talking the Talk. Trevor A. Harley, 2017-02-02. Talking the Talk provides a comprehensive introduction to the psychology of language written for the reader with no background in the field or any prior knowledge of psychology. Written in an accessible and friendly style, the book answers the questions people actually have about language: how do we speak, listen, read, and learn language? The book advocates an experimental approach, explaining how psychologists can use experiments to build models of language processing. Considering the full breadth of psycholinguistics, the book covers core topics including how children acquire language, how language is related to the brain, and what can go wrong with it. Fully updated throughout, this edition also includes additional coverage on the genetics of language, insight into potential cognitive advantages of bilingualism, new content on brain imaging and neuroscience, increased emphasis on recursion, and what is special about language. Talking the Talk is written in an engaging style which does not hesitate to explain complex concepts. It is essential reading for all undergraduate students and those new to the topic as well as the interested lay reader. Show People Michael Newton, 2019-09-15. Show People offers a comprehensive history of the idea of the film star from Mary Pickford to Andy Serkis, traversing more than one hundred years and drawing on examples from America, Britain, Europe, and Asia. Renowned film writer Michael Newton explores our enduring love affair with fame, glamour, and the cinematic image. Newton builds up an expansive picture of movie stardom through explorations of striking and diverse figures such as Ingrid Bergman and John Wayne, Anna Karina, and Sidney Poitier, Maggie Cheung, and Raj Kapoor. He celebrates the great performers of the past and looks forward to developments in the future while also illuminating the inner workings of the movie industry and what moves us in a film and in an actor's performance. An encyclopedic illustrated history of film idols ready for their close ups. Show People is ultimately a book about cinephilia, the love of cinema and our complex connection to that celebrated and beleaguered figure, the movie star. How It Ends Chris Impey, 2011-04-11 Remarkably upbeat and imbued with wit, wisdom and a palpable sense of awe over our universe. Tucson Weekly. Most of us are aware of our own mortality but few among us know what science with insights yielded from groundbreaking new research has to say about endings on a larger scale. Enter astronomer Chris Impey who chronicles the death of the whole shebang: individual species, biosphere, Earth, Sun, Milky Way and finally the entire universe. With a healthy dose of humor, How It Ends illuminates everything from the technologies of human life extension and the evolutionary arms race between microbes and men to the inescapable dimming of the Sun and the ultimate big rip, giving us a rare glimpse into a universe without us. The Arvon Book of Life Writing Sally Cline, Carole Angier, 2010-06-01 Essential reading for anyone interested in writing biography or memoir with practical advice from successful biographers and creative writing teachers. What I Don't Know about Animals Jenny Diski, 2011-01-01 What does novelist, essayist and memoirist Jenny Diski know about animals? She wasn't really sure as she began to write this book and she may not be sure now. But of this she is certain: our relationships with and attitudes toward animals are really worth thinking about. In What I Don't Know About Animals she shows why. Diski sets out on her wide-ranging investigation by remembering the stuffed cuddly creatures from her childhood, the animal books she read, the cartoons she watched, the strays she found. She considers the animals who have lived and still live with her, most especially Bunty the cat. Animals she has encountered close up and those she has feared. She examines human beings too and how they have looked at, studied, treated and written about the non-human creatures of our shared planet. Ranging still further, the author interviews scientists, discusses Derrida and his cat and observes elephants in Kenya, always seeking the key to the complex relationship we in the modern West have with animals. Subtle, intelligent and always engaging, this book is a brilliant exploration of what it means to be human and what it means to be animal and the uncertainty of what we can know about either.
