By: Martha Finley Martha Finley, 2016-10-11 Martha Finley April 26 1828 January 30 1909 1 was a teacher and author of numerous works the most well known being the 28 volume Elsie Dinsmore series which was published over a span of 38 years The daughter of Presbyterian minister Dr James Brown Finley and his wife and cousin Maria Theresa Brown Finley she was born on April 26 1828 in Chillicothe Ohio Finley wrote many of her books under the pseudonym Martha Farquharson She died in 1909 in Elkton Maryland where she moved in 1876 Elsie does not live with her parents but with her paternal grandfather his second wife Elsie's step grandmother and their six children Adelaide Lora Louise Arthur Walter and Enna Enna was the youngest Elsie's mother died soon after giving birth to her leaving her in the care of her grandfather Before her father comes back she becomes good friends with Rose Allison with whom she studies the Bible Her father was in Europe until she was almost eight years old as the first book begins The first Elsie books deal with a constant moral conflict between Christian principles and familial loyalty Deeper still is the warring between Christ centered principles and the worldly inclinations of both her Father and his family

Elsie's father is a strict disciplinarian who dictates inflexible rules by which his daughter must live. Any infraction is severely and often unjustly punished. In her father's absence, Elsie has become a Christian and abides by what she has been taught: Biblical law, especially the Ten Commandments, also known as the Decalogue, as taught to her by her dead Mother's housekeeper and then her own Nanny Chole. Her father, being worldly and not a Christian at that time, regards this as ludicrous and in some cases as insolence. Elsie knows that she must obey the Word of God before that of her father and can only obey her father when his orders do not conflict with Scripture. For example, Elsie's father attempts to force her to perform an act which she considers sinful, such as playing secular music or reading fiction, a book which was only fit for week-day reading because it had nothing at all in it about God on Sunday. Their conflict culminates with her having a complete nervous breakdown as she thinks that her Father does not really love her. She begs and pleads with him to read the Bible with her to become a Christian. But his heart is hardened. The whole reason that he was in Europe and not there to raise her is due to the loss of Elsie's Mother, who died in child birth.
